U.S. BOMBS NORTH VIET BASES; 2 AMERICAN PLANES SHOT DOWN

PRESIDENT JOHNSON described the new U.S. air action against gunboats and supporting facilities of North Viet Nam in a White House announcement late Tuesday night. (UPI Telephoto)

China Fires Warning On 'Retaliation'

Red China

HONG KONG (AP) — The Chinese Communist New Evening Post warned the United States today that Red China "will not wait until the flames of war come too close" before retaliating against what it called provocative U.S. attacks in the Tonkin Gulf area.

"This is a very serious crisis and we cannot predict what may happen," the Hong Kong paper said, "but the United States will have to bear all the consequences."

The paper did not specify what form of retaliatory action Red China would take.

The editorial was the first Chinese Communist reaction to President Johnson's announcement that U.S. air strikes were under way against Communist supply facilities in North Viet Nam.

There was no direct comment from Peking. But the New Evening Post is owned and operated by Chinese Communist officials and normally follows the Peking line rigidly.

"North Viet Nam and China are as close together as lips and teeth," the paper said. "North Viet Nam has already warned the United States that it will take defensive action. China has also warned the United States it is not going to sit idly by and watch its fraternal partner, North Viet Nam, invaded."

Johnson Says U.S. 'Has Met Aggression'

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — President Johnson declared today that "aggression unchallenged is aggression unleashed," and said the United States has met deliberate aggression with deliberate action against the North Vietnamese.

In an address aimed to the peoples of all nations, as well as of the United States, Johnson recounted the attacks on U.S. destroyers in the Gulf of Tonkin and the counteraction he

Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Navy aircraft made a devastating strike at North Vietnamese PT boats and their shore bases today in retaliation for the two attacks on American craft in the Tonkin Gulf this week.

Then the Washington government apparently sat back to let the lesson soak in — if it will soak in — with this stern word from Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara: "Whether this will be all that is necessary is up to the North Vietnamese."

The account of the explosive U.S. reaction, and the warning, were given by McNamara at a morning news conference, with-in hours of a somber announcement by President Johnson of the decision to hit back hard in reply to the attacks.

In a pre-midnight address to the nation, Johnson said:

"That reply is being given as I speak to you."

"Air action is now in execution against gunboats and certain supporting facilities in North Viet Nam which have been used in these hostile operations."

"The determination of all Americans to carry out our full commitment to the government and people of South Viet Nam will be redoubled by this outrage."

In summary, McNamara reported four North Vietnamese torpedo boat bases heavily damaged and one oil depot wrecked in 64 sorties by planes from the aircraft carriers Ticonderoga and Constellation, with 25 PT boats destroyed or damaged.

He gave the U.S. cost as two aircraft downed by ground fire and two damaged.

The action, McNamara said, took place between noon and 4 or 5 p.m. local time Tuesday.

With Vietnamese time 13 hours ahead of Washington, that means the bombs and rockets were falling within an hour after Johnson's report of his deci-

Sites Of Schools To Be Pinpointed

The Board of Education hopes to be able to pinpoint sites for a new high school and three elementary buildings prior to the special election Sept. 15 on a $3,380,000 bond issue to help finance construction, the Citizens Committee for Better Schools was advised at an initial meeting Tuesday night in Central School.

In response to a question on whether specific sites would be earmarked or just general locations (such as the East End, North Side and northwest section for the elementary buildings), Supt. Paul H. Blair said the board hopes to be able to announce it has options on sites.

SOME 30, including businessmen, civic leaders, industrialists, teachers and persons interested in the educational program attended the two-hour program which included a tour of the 70-year-old building. H. Judson English, chairman, presided.

Blair announced another meeting will be held Monday night at 7:30, also in Central.

The meetings have been scheduled in Central purposely, the superintendent said, "so you can see what we are talking about."

Asst. Supt. George Hargraves, who with Blair conferred with County Auditor Kenneth Bell yesterday morning on tax rates, said approval of the bond issue would increase real estate taxes for each half from $2.23 for a home valued at $1,000 on the tax duplicate to $20.93 for a home listed at $9,000.

The total millage necessary to retire the bonds over a 23-year period, including a half mill to repay an interest-free state loan of $990,958, would be 4.65 or $4.65 per each $1,000 of valuation on the tax duplicate.

THE PRESENT tax rate in East Liverpool now is 34.9 mills, including 23.2 mills for schools; 7.7 mills for the city; 3.8 mills for the county and two-tenths of a mill for the state, Hargraves said.

Approval of the bond issue would increase the total millage to 39.55, he added.

Speaking at length on the need for the new schools and reviewing the steps the school board has taken so far, Blair declared:

"Parents have three responsibilities to their children—love, care and education. Are we interested in up-to-date schools or ones that lag 25 years behind the times?"

The superintendent said a survey of city schools in 1935 by an Ohio State University education-al group showed the greatest need then was a high school and estimated a building housing 1,100 pupils could be erected for $350,000.

"TODAY a building for 1,200 pupils will cost over $2 million. Can we afford to wait 10-15 more years when the cost may again double? The decision on Sept. 15 may be the final decision this group ever has to make on school buildings for new schools would be suitable for 40 to 50 years."

The superintendent said the

Crews Hunt 5 Miners After Rescue Of 9

French Hold Faint Hope For Men Still In Collapsed Mine

CHAMPAGNOLE, France (AP) — A giant drill continued to bite into Mt. Rivel today in an effort to reach five miners still buried under 270 feet of earth, but there was little hope of finding more than two alive.

Weary rescuers brought up nine other miners Tuesday on the eighth day of their imprisonment in the limestone mine in the Jura Mountains. All appeared in relatively good condition.

Fears for the five missing miners cast the only shadow over what was otherwise a festive occasion in Champagnole, a village near the Swiss border.

Mine officials believe three of the five died instantly when hundreds of tons of rock filled most of a huge underground chamber in a cave-in July 27. But Champagnole's Mayor Andre Socie said faint tapplings heard until a few days ago was sufficient reason for a gigantic new effort.

Just as rescuers were about to begin drilling an escape shaft for the trapped nine last Thursday night they picked up what sounded like the desperate tapping in an isolated pocket about 100 feet away.

It was decided a delay in freeing the nine to go after the two unknown men would be a greater risk. Two days later, however, another drill finally went into action above the spot where the tapping was heard.

As the drill bored down, occasional tapping was still heard. But the digging was halted

GOP Eyes Challenge

Salinger Returns As New Senator

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pierre Salinger comes back today to the capital where he served years as White House press secretary to try on a new toga as a Democratic senator from California.

Republicans were making some threatening gestures aimed at forcing him to stand aside while the Senate Rules Committee looks into the legality of his appointment by Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown.

But Salinger, scheduled to arrive in a chartered plane with Brown and more than 100 boosters, carried with him a certificate of qualification signed by the governor.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said there would be a last-minute decision whether to challenge the legality of that certificate. The grounds would be that Salinger was not eligible for appointment because he had not been a California elector for one year.

Republican George Murphy, who will be Salinger's opponent in a November battle for the seat of the late Democratic Sen. Clair Engle, protested by telegram that Salinger wasn't qualified for the appointment.

Brown said he had consulted with the state attorney general and "there is absolutely no question that this appointment is proper and valid." California state courts already have upheld Salinger's right to run for the Senate, although he was a resident of Virginia at the time he filed.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said in a separate interview that if the Republicans try to halt the appointee at the door, he will move that he be given the oath "without prejudice" while an investigation is made of any formal complaints that might be lodged.

This would accomplish what the Democrats want and the Republicans don't want. It would make Salinger an incumbent with full senatorial prerogatives in his general-election race with Murphy.

Since Salinger's addition to the roll would restore the 67-33 margin of the Democrats over Republicans, few had any illusions about the outcome of any challenge based on the technical provisions of California law.

51 Employers To Get
Notices To Remit Tax

Notices are on the way in the mail today to 51 East Liverpool employers who failed to turn over to the city income tax office by Friday the funds they had withheld from their employees' wages for taxes in the quarter ending June 30, Commissioner D. G. Wilkinson said today.

The delinquent notices were sent yesterday to the 51 who failed to remit the tax money by the deadline, Wilkinson said. The city has 579 employers who withhold the taxes from pay-rolls and 528 of them filed the reports, he explained. The deadline for the payments falls 30 days after the end of the quarter, he explained.

90-Day Test Of One-Way Traffic Slated

Wellsville Council Agrees To Plan For Commerce St. Area

Legislation to create one-way traffic west on Commerce St. between 9th and 15th Sts. for a trial period was ordered by Wellsville City Council Tuesday night.

The proposal has been under study for some time. Commerce now is partially one-way.

The change will be for a 90-day period. Councilmen Meryle Kenney and Nunzio Lombardozzi abstained from voting on the motion to bring in the legislation. Lombardozzi said that although he has headed the study on the proposal, he has not yet made up his mind.

The proposal already has met with some objection. Lombardozzi said a study shows there were 39 accidents on Commerce between 5th and 18th Sts. during a one-year period. Twenty-eight of these accidents occurred between 9th and 15th Sts., three between 3rd and 9th and eight between 15th and 17th.

Because of the narrowness of the street, the causes were crowding, sideswiping and hit-skips.

He conducted a survey earlier of the residents to determine their sentiments. Of those questioned, six want one-way east, 12 want one-way west, 38 want one-way either direction, eight urged no change and 10 had no comment.

Lombardozzi said Police Chief John Hephner recommended trying one-way west for a trial period.

FBI Locates Bodies Of Rights Workers

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Two of the three bodies found buried in a recently constructed earthen dam near Philadelphia, Miss., were identified early today as missing civil rights workers Andy Goodman and Mickey Schwerner.

All three bodies were undergoing pathological tests early today at the University of Mississippi Medical center where they were brought brought after being found near Philadelphia late Tuesday.

Examination of the third body was continuing.

Announcement of the identification of Goodman and Schwerner was made in Washington by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

The Greenwood, Miss., office of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee said it had been told by the Jackson FBI office that the third body had been identified as James Chaney, the Negro companion of Goodman and Schwerner.

There was no immediate confirmation of this from the FBI. The three vanished June 21 after being freed from jail at Philadelphia where they had been arrested on a speeding charge.

They had been held in jail at Philadelphia nearly six hours after Chaney was arrested on a speeding charge.

The last person known to have seen them was Neshoba County deputy sheriff Cecil Price, who said he followed them a short distance after their release as they drove south toward Meridian.

The Meridian Star quoted an authoritative source as saying the bodies found in the dam were those of two white males and a Negro male. The source, according to the newspaper, said the bodies were found 20 feet from the top of the loose earth structure, which was being built late in June when Schwerner, Goodman and Chaney vanished.

The charred hulk of the station wagon used by the trio had been located 15 miles north of Philadelphia two days after they disappeared.

MICKEY SCHWERNER

JAMES CHANEY

ANDREW GOODMAN

The property is owned by Olen Burrage of Philadelphia. Burrage was reported at the site while the excavation was under way.

Schwerner had been working in a civil rights project at Meridian since last February. He had driven to Oxford, Ohio, the week before his disappearance to bring back to Mississippi some of the summer civil rights volunteers, including Goodman.

The three drove from Meridian to the Philadelphia area early on the morning of June 21 to check a burned out Negro church which had been used for civil rights workers.

Goodman, in the advance guard of some 600 summer volunteers, had been scheduled to work in the Philadelphia area.

Quick Support Seen Congress Backs Johnson's Move

WASHINGTON (AP) — The

Republican and Democratic leaders agreed today to seek swift bi-partisan Senate approval of a declaration of support of President Johnson's actions in the Southeast Asian crisis.

Sen. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., and Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., the majority and minority leaders, reached the agreement in a conference in the Senate chamber in advance of today's Senate session.

Declaring "Speed is of essence," Dirksen said he believed a resolution expressing bipartisan support of the President should receive immediate action, without waiting for the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services committees to clear it first.

Mansfield said he agreed. Thus, a vote might come before nightfall on a historic resolution throwing the Senate's support behind the President's declaration that the United States is determined "to take all necessary measures" to defend peace and freedom in Southeast Asia.

The two leaders held their meeting in the Senate at Dirksen's desk, with newsmen clustered around them and able to hear their every word.

U.S. Action Gets Support Of Goldwater

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, dramatically supporting President Johnson on Viet Nam, flew back to the nation's capital today.

"We cannot allow the American flag to be shot at anywhere on earth," Goldwater said in backing the President.

It was an unusual end to an unusual vacation.

For Goldwater not only supported Johnson's stand; he issued a statement saying so more than an hour before the

3 Car Thefts Cleared With Boy's Arrest

Police Capt. Robert H. Pyle said three East Liverpool auto thefts were solved with the arrest of an 18-year-old North Side boy who was bound over to the Grand Jury today in Municipal Court in connection with one of the cases.

Ross Lyle, 728 Oak St., was held under $1,000 bond by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff after he pleaded not guilty and waived a preliminary hearing on an affidavit alleging he stole a 1959 Chevrolet Corvette owned by Gus Dauka of Smithfield St. on April 25.

Capt. Pyle explained the defendant was 18 at the time of the alleged theft of the Dauka car, which means he can be prosecuted as an adult in that case. But at the time two other autos were taken the boy was 17, an age that makes him subject to prosecution in Juvenile Court, the captain said.

Capt. Pyle said the boy also has admitted the theft of an auto owned by Mike Turk, Inc., taken June 9 from the home of the owner, Mike Turk, on Thompson Ave. The auto was recovered the same date on Pope Ave. Ext. It also was a Corvette.

The captain said the boy also has admitted the theft of an auto owned by Dr. R. Jay Kinsey on July 4 from the dentist's home at 2742 St. Clair Ave. The auto was found several weeks later in Lima.

Lyle was represented by Atty. Delmar T. O'Hara. He was taken into court originally on Monday on the charge of stealing Dauka's car. But a continuance was granted until today when he asked time to obtain counsel.

When Voters Don't Count

If the sole purpose of a stalling tactic against state reapportionment proposed by Ohio's Rep. William McCulloch of Piqua and Sen. Dirksen of Illinois were fairness to voters, we would have to agree with them.
But we think there's more to it than fairness to voters. We don't think voters count in their consideration.
Rep. McCulloch and Sen. Dirksen, we suspect, are proposing temporary halts in reapportionment of state legislative bodies so a constitutional amendment can be prepared to justify the prevailing arrangement that has one house of the state legislature representing people and the other house representing geography.
And who would pass on the amendment when it was submitted to the states for ratification? State legislatures. The people would have nothing to say about it.
The chances of licking a proposed amendment to freeze the prevailing arrangement that violates popular government would be nil, because the decision would be made by the self-same people whose legislative security would be shattered by reapportionment.
One wonders as the two members of Congress go about their effort to spike reapportionment of state legislatures how many people whose representation is at stake really understand what the U.S. Supreme Court did when it made its ruling last June.
It said legislators should be elected by voters, not by special-interest blocks, not by farms, not by forests. It said legislators should represent people and that to do otherwise was to deny equal protection of laws to people unequally represented.
It said there was no parallel between unequal representation in Congress and in the states. Each state was given two votes in the U.S. Senate and at least one vote in the House of Representatives as the consequence of a deal between states and the federal government on state sovereignty. But within states sovereignty is not at issue.
The only question in the states is representation. Legislators who have kidded the people into believing otherwise have been less interested in popular government than in rigging government machinery to suit themselves.

More Deserved Recognition

Once again Secretary of State Ted W. Brown, the state's chief election officer, has commended the Columbiana County Election Board for the efficient way in which it administers voting machinery.
This time, the award—a printed certificate with Brown's signature and official seal—was presented for "outstanding achievement" in connection with the primary elections on May 5.
It's not the first time the Columbiana County board has been singled out for commendation by the secretary of state.
As Brown pointed out in the framed certificate now hanging on the wall of the Election Board's office, "efficient administration of elections" is fundamental to the American process.
The state's awards and commendations from time to time have underscored a fact of which Columbiana County long has been aware—that its Election Board is among the most efficient and accurate in Ohio. Some of the methods devised here for expediting returns have been adopted in other counties.
Brown's commendation particularly reflects credit upon Frank R. O'Hanlon, the board's veteran clerk and chief administrative officer, and the two women who help him operate the office, Mrs. Hillis Conner and Miss Rebecca Resnick.
It also is a pat on the back to the four members of the Election Board—Carl L. Stacy and Don R. Gosney, both of Columbiana, Atty. Charles A. Pike of Lisbon and Atty. James L. McSweeney of Wellsville.
And certainly sharing in the honors are the 990 judges and clerks who staff Columbiana County's 165 precinct polling places on election days.

One Thing At A Time

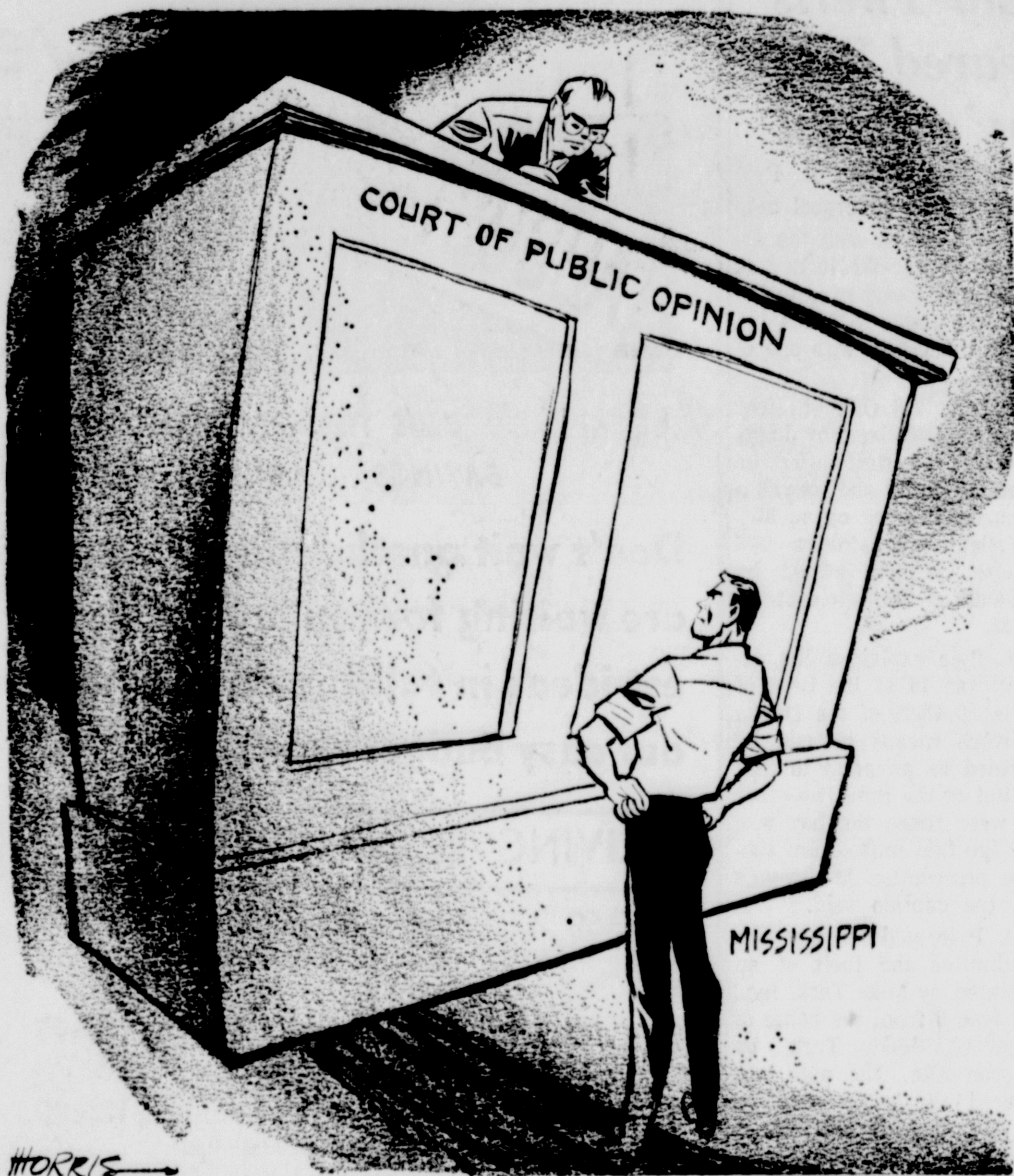

When the Democratic National Convention opens Aug. 24, President Johnson's legislative record will be complete. Congress will adjourn, presidential campaigning will start in earnest on Labor Day and the country will give itself single-mindedly to the hoopla of the quadrennial politicking.
It has been a truism since the Republican National Convention that a Goldwater-Johnson contest will draw lively voter interest because it will offer a clear choice between the conservatism of the Arizona senator and his backers and the liberalism of the President and his backers.
Hardly a day passes without further evidence of a head-on collision in the making—forthright statements of support and opposition by individuals and spokesmen for organizations. And true to the rule that in the United States only one preoccupation can be indulged in at a time, all this has blotted out the fact the 88th Congress now is in the home stretch.
This is the Congress that came into being midway of the Kennedy administration—the one John F. Kennedy had been unable to swing into his orbit—the one threatening to embarrass him politically when he stood for re-election.
Yet, the transformation that came about when Vice President Johnson took the presidential oath that fateful afternoon last November has made this Congress his strongest argument for support in the 1964 election.
By the end of this week, President Johnson's mastery of the legislative art will have been demonstrated so amply that even his critics will have to concede he wrought a near-miracle. The legislative record he is compiling will exceed by far the best record President Kennedy could have hoped for if he had lived.
Anniversary
Before World War I ended, 8,538,315 members of the mobilized forces had lost their lives. More than 65 million persons had been mobilized.
More than 21 million had been mutilated by wounds. Seven and three-quarters million had been listed as prisoners and missing. Total casualties for both sides in the senseless conflict were 37½ million.
Added to this were civilian casualties and the incalculable cost of the war. Europe never recovered. Yet, within a generation, its nations were at one another's throats again in an even ghastlier war. Why bring this up now?
Because 50 years ago on Aug. 4, 1914, the first shots of World War I were fired—the shots that marked the beginning of a senseless slaughter. No one won. Everybody lost. The war ended in peace without victory and without defeat.

Cotton Corners

Dear Nephew: Things are quiet here. Dog days have come and my friend Duke and I are making the most of them.
All we want out of life is to be let alone until we feel brisk. We do not want to romp, force ourselves to stay awake, or rise to the occasion.
Duke's favorite place is a hole he has dug with his special dimensions under a bush in the side yard. Mine is in the glider on the porch. We are out of harm's way. What more could be asked of us?
What we are doing is thinking, actually. Duke is thinking about his personal problems, and I am thinking objectively.
One of my objective thoughts has been what a tough break it was when President Johnson sidetracked Sargent Shriver to keep him from running for vice president.
When Mr. Johnson made his move to nip Shriver in the bud he had to nip Dean Rusk, Robert McNamara, Adlai Stevenson and a lot of other innocent people.
THINGS LIKE this in politics fascinate me. I have heard politics called the art of the possible, but it also is the art of the impossible—the trick of making it impossible for the other fellow to do what you're afraid he might try to do. President Johnson didn't want the wrong man running for veep.
I understand from my reading on this matter that he gave Shriver a chance to renounce publicly all ambition to be the Democratic nominee for vice president. When Shriver declined to walk the plank, he left Mr. Johnson no choice but to order all his Cabinet members and others who met with the Cabinet to walk the plank in a mass execution.
Thus, he was able to get rid of Shriver and any other possible contenders for the

The Free World's Man In Africa

By Victor Reisel

ADDIS ABABA, ETHIOPIA
On this continent it's refreshing to encounter a national leader who does not tell you confidentially that he believes that the United States is the backwash of the past and Africa is the wave of the future. It is stimulating after a long haul through Africa to run into a chief of state who respects the United States and says so and acts so without concern over what the Soviets or the Chinese Communists will think.
Such a man is Ras Tafari Makonnen, whose throne name is His Imperial Majesty, Emperor Haile Selassie I, absolute ruler over 40 tribes in a land as large as Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas. He is all powerful. There are no political parties. His government owns the newspapers. He is the law, for he names all judges right up to the Imperial Supreme Court. In effect, he chooses the members of the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate.
Yet His Imperial Majesty is democracy's man in Africa.

He has taken only $40 million for ment, after several years, he investments in his land in such projects as the proposed power station at the oil refinery plant at Asab.
But this loan did not buy His Majesty's dignity or neutrality in foreign policy or personal conduct.
He has total power, but no totalitarian instincts. In December 1960, for example, his imperial bodyguard revolted while he was in Brazil. The military unit seized a palace, lured all cabinet members and the crown prince into it. And all but the prince were murdered with machine guns. Emperor Haile Selassie showed no fight. He returned but with dignity. Slowly he made his way to Addis Ababa.
THE COUP collapsed. The emperor hung two leaders of the killer squad. But the others were considered misguided. They were sentenced to several years in prison. Today, most of them are out and "rehabilitated." Elsewhere, hundreds would have been executed.
But not in Ethiopia, though this capital city is but 50 miles from roaming ostriches, zebras, wild boars and an illiterate peasantry.
Slowly the emperor is attempting to build a modern state. He has even created a small labor movement called the Confederation of Ethiopian Labor Unions — CELU.

I went into its headquarters "building" near Mexico Circle. I knew it was CELU headquarters because its name was on a piece of wood tacked to a pole leaning against a wall.
CELU has two small rooms and three typewriters, one supplied by the Communist Czechoslovakian unions.

THIS MACHINE is but a token of what the communist bloc would like to do — buy up the tiny movement. But Ethiopia's minister of national community development, His Excellency Ato Getahun Tessema, who actually is the minister of labor, told me that the constant Communist pressure and offers of money will not be tolerated. Instead Ato Getahun encourages unions from the democracies to help CELU grow into a democratic labor federation free from Communist infiltration.

Thus it goes here. English is the second official language. The currency is called dollars and cents. The government's reserve is in Wall Street blue chip stocks. The emperor loves milk shakes. He sips champagne only on Christmas Eve when the American Embassy staff sings carols to him under his palace window. He asks them in to drink to a free world.
All hail to Haile Selassie, King of Kings of Ethiopia, Conqueror of the Tribe of Judah, the free world's man in Africa.

Letter To Editor

ED TOR OF THE REVIEW:

On July 29 or 30, some sadist, probably in the Maplewood vicinity, shot and paralyzed a black cat. This person could have been a youngster with irresponsible parents.
Parents who give a young person a gun without instructions on the responsibilities of firearms have no sense and don't deserve to have children.
On the other hand, this cruel person may have been an adult. I hate to think that there may be such maladjusted individuals in this community.
This kind of displacement complex can grow to unpredictable heights. In other words, a disliked person in the neighborhood could quite conceivably be next.
Thanks to a poor aim, Sooty will not die, but his right side will be paralyzed for as long as he lives. I hope the guilty person or persons are not too ignorant to read this, and will realize to what serious consequences this irresponsibility can lead.

The People Wonder

By David Lawrence

Violence And Disorder Raise Questions

From all over the country comes word that people are wondering why the President and the Congress in Washington are doing virtually nothing about the violence and disorder — the looting and the thievery — which have been going on in some of the principal cities of the nation under the guise of expressing racial resentments.

The quick answer given by administration officials is that this is a local matter for the states or for cities. But only a few weeks ago the American people were told that racial relations "affect interstate commerce," and that this was the main reason for passing the civil rights law. Not only have the latest riots involved public places of business — interfering with commerce — but the hotels in New York City report many cancellations of reservations made by would-be customers from several states.
Indeed, civil rights are being taken away daily from innocent citizens. There are threats, moreover, to limit the activities of the local police and lodge authority in civilian boards in the cities to review and reverse the acts of the police on grounds of alleged "brutality."
But nothing is being done to discourage resistance to arrest. If police officers were obeyed, there would be no occasion for disputes about brutality.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON has made some generalized statements about the race riots, but he hasn't put the finger of blame on the basic trouble—the theory of civil disobedience which lately has been acclaimed by some white and Negro preachers and organizations to such an extent that the word has spread down through all the Negro communities that it's all right to attack the police.
It was Adlai Stevenson who, in a public speech, recently said that going to jail in connection with demonstrations has come to be regarded as "no longer a dishonor but a proud achievement."

The Congress has watched with dismay the various race riots and the President has spoken of them as regrettable. But he has failed to repudiate any of the Negro organizations involved which have said they are giving him their political support.
Cabinet officers are not slow to condemn the Ku Klux Klan or the John Birch Society by name and call them extremist organizations, but the President, as the leader of the Democratic party, has not yet spoken out against or named the individuals as well as the organizations which have been telling the Negroes that civil disobedience is all right.

ABOUT AS FAR as Mr. Johnson has gone is to make this declaration after the Rochester, N.Y., riots:

"When machinery does not exist to redress grievances, it is understandable that those who are aggrieved will take to the streets, whether rightly or wrongly. Their judgments might be wrong as to how justice could be obtained, but they would be less or more than human if they did not seek justice."

Is it "seeking justice" to loot stores? A civic leader in Rochester was quoted as saying after the riots:

"They weren't 'demonstrating' for anything. They used the riot as an excuse to see how much they could get away with — wrecking and sacking hundreds of stores — but making sure they cleared out the liquor stores first. They got away with enough liquor to keep them drunk for six months."

When efforts are made to arrest offenders, leaders of Negro organizations promptly cry out against police brutality.

William H. Parker, police chief of Los Angeles, who is trained in the law and sociology and is recognized widely as a top authority on law enforcement, was interviewed by U.S. News & World Report after the Rochester riots.

HE WAS ASKED if police are being hampered in handling racial trouble. He replied:

"I think so, and I think the pressures put upon the police throughout the nation by such groups as the American Civil Liberties Union — in relation to these so-called citizens' boards to review police actions — have encouraged a flouting of the police authority. . . .

"I have read public statements saying that if the law was not based on justice then it need not be obeyed. This is what they call 'civil disobedience.' But when you do that, you then violate the very basis upon which this democratic republic must rest — and that's the rule of law."

The administration has hardly as yet begun to realize the effects of the bitterness and resentment which are sweeping our country as city after city is being subjected to violence and disorders in the name of "civil rights demonstrations."

The federal power is being invoked to forbid discrimination in employment and public accommodations on the ground of race or color but it is also discriminatory to allow civil rights to be taken away from white or colored people by means of riots and mob violence.

Right-To-Work Approach

By Joseph. R. Slevin

WASHINGTON — President Johnson is being urged to counter the white backlash in the big industrial cities by taking a strong stand against right-to-work laws.
Administration aides have been searching for an issue that can provide a rallying point for white union members, and they believe the hated right-to-work measures are the answer.
Johnson needs a powerful, emotional argument to overcome the anti-Negro resentment that has boiled up in many labor districts. No issue has a stronger appeal to organized labor than a threat to union security.

ing his campaign on Labor Day morning.

Johnson will hammer on the need for social security, more generous minimum wage protection, Medicare and other bread-and-butter programs that Goldwater dislikes. But the administration strategists believe none packs the wallop of right to work.

The white backlash means that Johnson cannot take labor for granted as some analysts had thought he could if Goldwater were nominated—and the strategy that is being devised indicates that the President will disappoint those who had expected him to move toward the right to neutralize part of the Arizona conservative's attraction.

THE CUTTING EDGE of the Johnson campaign against right to work would be a pledge to repeal the 1947 Taft-Hartley Act provision that permits states to enact the union restrictions. Democratic platforms repeatedly have called for repeal.
However, Johnson will have to do some tall explaining. He voted for Taft-Hartley as a congressman and voted to override a veto by President Truman. Later, while a senator, he endorsed right to work in Texas.

sion. Planes doubtless were going aloft as he spoke.

Johnson referred to the U.S. reaction as a "positive reply" to the aggression by North Vietnamese PT boats against American naval vessels in international waters.

But he stressed the United States' long-range peaceful intentions.

Even before the strikes began, McNamara disclosed "substantial military forces" were being moved into Southeast Asia as a precaution against a Red counterthrust from North Viet Nam or Red China. He gave some details on that buildup at today's meeting with newsmen.

The attack was in retaliation for an assault by three Red PT boats last Sunday against the destroyer Maddox in which one of the boats were sunk and two others damaged, and another fiercer engagement involving two U.S. craft Tuesday.

The second attack was aimed at the Maddox and the destroyer Turner Joy which had been sent to support the Maddox.

At least three of the attacking small craft were believed sunk in the second attack.

McNamara said in response to questions that "whether this (the retaliatory blow) will be all that is necessary is up to the North Vietnamese."

His summary of the U.S. response was a swift follow-up to the announcement by President Johnson Tuesday night that Navy planes had been sent on the mission to give a "positive reply" to the Red attacks.

The President made his announcement in somber tones at a session with newsmen late Tuesday night after a day-long series of emergency conferences.

The areas of the U.S. bombing attack were given by McNamara as four PT boat bases, the first at Hongay near the mouth of the Red River close to Haiphong and, leading south, Loc Chao, Phuc Loi, and Quang Khe.

In addition the oil storage depot at Vinh near Quang Khe was brought under attack by the planes from the carriers.

"The oil storage depot containing 14 tanks and representing 10 per cent of the petroleum storage capacity of the country was 90 per cent destroyed," McNamara said adding: "Smoke was observed rising to 14,000 feet."

McNamara said there were no civilian villages near the target areas.

The secretary said he had moved Tuesday night to reinforce the Pacific area and these moves included:

1. Transfer of an attack carrier group from the First Fleet in the Atlantic to the Western Pacific.

2. Movement of interceptor and bomber aircraft into South Viet Nam.

3. Movement of fighter bombers into Thailand.

4. Transfer of interceptor and fighter-bomber squadrons from the United States "to advanced bases in the Pacific."

5. Movement of an anti-submarine force into the South China Sea.

6. The alerting and readying of selected Army and Marine forces.

The Army maintains the 25th Division in a high state of combat readiness at Honolulu. The Marines have their 3rd Division at Okinawa and a brigade at Honolulu.

McNamara told the news conference that reconnaissance flights would be carried out later to determine precisely what destruction had been wrought by the carrier plane assault.

Asked if he could give any reason for the unusual North Vietnamese naval activities,

McNamara replied, "I can't explain them."

He also said the Navy would continue its patrols in the Gulf of Tonkin and would continue "to protect itself against aggression."

No North Vietnamese aircraft attempted to intercept the attack aircraft from the two carriers, McNamara said he could not give a more precise estimate of damage to the four torpedo boat bases other than to say it was "very substantial."

McNamara said names of the two downed U.S. pilots would be released as soon as their next of kin had been notified, probably sometime today.

President Johnson, in his statement Tuesday night, called the air strikes a "positive reply" to attacks.

As Interim Commissioner

Jack Evans Appointed In Vacant Hancock Post

Jack Evans of New Cumberland, a painting contractor, was named to Hancock County Court Tuesday by Gov. W. W. Barron to fill a vacancy created by the death of Robert E. Roach two months ago.

Evans, 51, will serve until January as an interim county commissioner but is a candidate in November for a regular four-year term as a member of County Court.

Gov. Barron picked the successor to Mr. Roach because of a standoff over the vacancy between William C. Graham of Chester and James Finley of Weirton, county commissioners.

Early in July, Finley sought to name Evans to the unexpired term of Mr. Roach but the move failed for lack of a second by Graham.

Later, Graham sought to have Mrs. Emma F. Roach, widow of the late commissioner, named to the vacancy but Finley declined to add the necessary second.

Because they failed to reach accord in 60 days on filling the vacant commissioner's chair, Gov. Barron was given the choice of naming a successor.

Evans was chosen earlier for a ballot place for the commissioner's post in Clay District by the Hancock County Democratic Executive Committee headed by Atty. Edward Zagula. But the name of Squire Jack Bryan was advanced first by deposed executive chairman Dick Wright, and whose name will appear on the Democratic ballot apparently is a legal question.

Albert (Jakie) Fucy of New Cumberland is the Republican candidate for the Clay District post.

Evans is married, has five daughters, is an Air Force veteran and was a deputy tax assessor in 1939-43.

Ten Americans have been awarded Nobel Peace Prizes since their beginning in 1901. The first of these was Theodore Roosevelt in 1906, followed by Elihu Root in 1912, Woodrow Wilson in 1919, Charles G. Shown going over the fireworks contract, which has just been signed, are, left to right, Frank Roberts and Sam Amato, seated, and Russ Corsello and John Cataldo, standing.

Roberts is in charge of solicitation. Amato is the general chairman, Corsello is the K. of C. recorder and Cataldo is the financial secretary. Amato also is grand knight of the council.

The festival will be highlighted by an elaborate fireworks display Saturday, Aug. 15, at Central Park at 13th St. at 10:30 p. m.

The Zambelli Fire Works Co., managed by George Zambelli of New Castle, will be in charge.

The festival is held in honor of St. Rocco, a patron saint of the Italian people. St. Rocco was born in France of noble parents. They died while he was a youth. He sold all his possessions and left on a pilgrimage to Rome.

He visited a village near Rome and found many of the residents afflicted with disease. He remained to help care for them and many noticed that when he made the sign of the cross over them, they improved or were cured.

St. Rocco traveled on and later became ill himself. A dog from a nearby castle provided him bread daily and a spring came from the ground to quench his thirst, according to the legend.

He later died in prison after being arrested as a spy. Special events this year will include concerts by the American Federation of Musicians Local 172 at Central Park on Monday and Wednesday from 7 to 9 p. m.

The American Funland World of Fun Shows of Shalersville will provide rides and other amusements. The fireworks display this year is to surpass all others held in the city, sponsors said.

The concessions will be open nightly from 7 to 11 through Saturday. Aerial bombs will be discharged nightly beginning at 6 and continue at 15-minute intervals to mark the opening.

The closing Sunday will include a Solemn High Mass at 11 a. m. at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church by Fr. Gerald X. Curran.

Hancock Group To Attend PTA Training Class

The Hancock County PTA Council is expected to send representatives at the 14th annual leadership training school at Jackson Mill in Lewis County, Aug. 14-16.

The school is sponsored by the West Virginia PTA Congress and any PTA member may attend. Mrs. Bernard Rogers of Morgantown is chairman.

Registration will begin at 1

p. m. opening day and the program will get under way at 3 p. m. The school will adjourn with lunch Aug. 16.

A council presidents' workshop will be held Aug. 15 with Mrs. Hivens Snodgrass of Racine in charge. Presidents of PTA Councils in West Virginia may attend without charge. A second representative may be sent at council expense.

Additional information concerning the school or transportation may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Claudius Ford, president of the Hancock County PTA Council, 564-2931.

Pope Paul Plans Helicopter Flight In Vatican 'First'

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI will fly to Orvieto on Aug. 11 by helicopter, the Vatican announced today. It will be the first time a Pope has ever flown in a helicopter.

The 75-mile flight to the Umbrian Hill town will be the second aerial first for Pope Paul. His pilgrimage to the Holy Land last January was the first flight ever made by a Roman Catholic pontiff.

Pope Paul is going to Orvieto to commemorate the 700th anniversary of the institution of the Feast of Corpus Christi by a papal bull issued by Pope Urban IV.

The Pope announced today that the first encyclical of his 13-month-old reign will be published next week under the Latin title "Ecclesiam Suam" — His Church. The Pope made the announcement during his weekly general audience at the papal summer palace at Castel Gandolfo, south of Rome.

The encyclical, a circular letter to all bishops of the Roman Catholic Church, takes its name from the first words of its Latin text. A Pope's first encyclical usually outlines the program for his reign.

If you are planning to prepare curried chicken ahead to reheat in the oven, you might like to sprinkle the top of the casserole with flaked coconut. As an accompaniment to the dish, serve mango chutney and ground roasted peanuts.

Wellsville Club Aims Annexation

Suggestions concerning possible annexation of surrounding areas were made at a meeting of the Wellsville Kiwanis Club Tuesday noon at Platt's Tea Room.

The suggestions will be presented to the city's Planning Commission.

Supt. Lowell Myers served as moderator for a discussion on annexation. He spoke briefly, telling of the need for immediate action and then presented a series of questions.

The Kiwanians divided into three groups for discussions and then reported to the entire membership.

The Board of Directors will meet noon Friday at Meade's Restaurant.

The boys and girls committee announced a Junior Olympics program will be held at the city playlots next Wednesday. A championship playoff will be held the following Friday, Aug. 21.

School Sites To Be Picked Before Vote

writer of the 1935 survey pointed out in 11 years devoted to school building problems he had never seen a system so devoid of physical facilities. "Little, if anything, was done, however," Blair said.

Recommendations today on school buildings call for 10 acres plus an additional acre for each 100 students. "Where do we stand with buildings occupying as little as three-tenths of an acre?" Blair asked.

The average age of East Liverpool schools is between 50 and 60 years "and surveys show buildings have outlived their usefulness after 50 years," he continued.

The Chamber of Commerce had a survey made by the Ohio Chamber in 1943 "for the purpose of maintaining an efficient, operated school system."

A 1947 survey by an OSU group resulted eventually in passage of a bond issue for construction of Westgate junior high and elementary and East Junior High "although it was seven years before they were able to move into one of the buildings," the superintendent pointed out.

"If this bond issue is successful, it still will be two or three years before we can use any of the buildings," he continued.

The cost of operating the high school plant is prohibitive, Blair said, pointing out 468,500 pounds of coal were burned in Central last year. Thirty-five tons were burned in a 10-day period last January although school was in session only two days, he said.

Due to heavy snows, the building had to be kept heated, however, to prevent the water pipes from freezing.

Because of outmoded electrical circuits, the superintendent said it would cost $400 to run a line into the chemistry laboratory to operate an apparatus to distill water.

BECAUSE OF the cost, the work hasn't been done, the superintendent continued, declaring, "It's ridiculous to continue with this type of expenditure."

He said he was virtually sickened one day when he walked into the biology laboratory in Central and saw students having to use their desks to dissection frogs.

"Why are we promoting this bond issue? Because we want a quality education program," Blair declared.

He said school officials work hard to prevent a serious drop-out problem and said the Westgate and East Junior High buildings have been "a tremendous help."

As an example, he said many girls study home economics in the two junior highs but lose interest when they see the inadequate home ec lab in the high school.

THE ANCIENT buildings also cause problems in securing teachers, he continued, pointing out he has had teachers refuse employment because he was unable to promise they would be in one of the newer buildings.

The superintendent also discussed transportation problems, pointing out transportation would not be increased appreciably by relocating the high school and might be reduced with fewer buildings to serve.

He also reviewed possible uses for the present high school buildings.

Johnson

ordered against the hostile ships, and shore bases, and said:

"We welcome — and we invite — the scrutiny of all men who seek peace, for peace is the only purpose of the course we pursue."

And he declared that no friendly country need fear, and no foe hope, "that this is a nation divided in this election year."

The President spoke at ceremonies dedicating a journalism building as the first unit of a $15-million communications center at Syracuse University.

When he turned to the attacks on U.S. destroyers, he said:

"The attacks were deliberate."

"The attacks were unprovoked."

"The attacks have been answered."

Johnson listed a long string of promises broken, and said the government of North Viet Nam is engaged in aggression against South Viet Nam, the Kingdom of Laos, and now against the United States on the high seas.

He said there could be no doubt about the policy or purpose — and "no doubt about the responsibilities of men and nations devoted to peace."

Johnson said peace requires that "we and all our friends stand firm against the present government of North Viet Nam, which he said is "flouting the will of the world."

"The world is challenged," he said, "to make its will against war known and known clearly — felt and felt decisively."

Speaking then to America's friends of the Atlantic Alliance, Johnson said the challenge in Southeast Asia now is the same we faced with courage and met with strength in Greece and Turkey, Berlin and Korea, Lebanon and Cuba.

"To any who may be tempted to support — or to widen — the present aggression," Johnson declared, "I say this. There is no threat to any peaceful power from the United States of America. But there can be no peace by aggression and no immunity from reply. That is what is meant by the actions taken yesterday."

Fresh pear salad is delightful when it is served with a sour-cream dressing enlivened by a nippy cheese. To make the salad, arrange pared, cored and halved pears on crisp greens just before serving. Spoon a little of the dressing in the pear cavities and pass the rest.

One-Way Test Of Traffic Set

adopted legislation authorizing Safety-Service Director Fred Baldasare to advertise for bids for two 1965 cruisers for the police department and for bids for the construction of a storage building at the sewage disposal plant.

In response to a query by Councilman Aguin Bowling, Baldasare said there was a 100 per cent response in paying the water bills in the Third Zone, with collections up $2,000 over last year. Bowling said this is the first time this has happened.

Baldasare has instituted a plan to bolster collections and to collect delinquent accounts. He said no shutoffs were necessary.

Councilman Dwight MacLean complained of weeds growing along streets and in vacant lots. He said some are two to three feet high.

Oscar Van Dyke, city hall custodian and parking meter repairman, reported that 34 meters located between 12th and 15th Sts. are constantly being damaged by vandals.

He said the average weekly collection from the meters is $5. He said over the past year it has cost the city $495 in parts to keep them in repair, aside from 297 man-hours spent in fixing them.

Council discussed removing the meters and the need for better policing of the area. The street and light committee was directed to make a complete check into the situation.

Council also ordered legislation to place a new half-mill levy on the November ballot for the upkeep and necessary repairs to the floodwall. The half-mill levy will raise approximately $5,000 per year and will be for a five-year period.

Bowling pointed out the floodwall fund, now supported by a half-mill levy, is $1,297 in the red. He said at least $4,000 is needed to make necessary repairs to the electric motors and additional money is needed for the pumps.

"This is an important piece of property to the city of Wellsville and should be cared for," he commented.

Council also ordered legislation to prohibit parking on city streets for more than a 48-hour period. This is to give the police department jurisdiction to remove cars from the streets with old license plates.

A discussion was held on a suggestion from Councilman Walter Henthorne that a standard rate of reimbursement be established for persons who must travel out of town on city business.

Henthorne again raised the question of the appointment of another man to the police department to fill a vacancy and the matter of whether or not the city has collected a pinball distributor's fees for 1963.

Mrs. Mary Rahter, Council president, said the Pennsylvania Railroad plans to make a proposal to install electric signals at the 18th St. crossing and remove the watchman.

Mrs. Rahter gave the opening prayer. Councilman Bill Stoddard was absent.

A letter was read from the Ohio Valley Gas Co., stating the rates will remain the same for September and November.

Gary Leughmyer, 601 15th St., presented a bill for $23.10 for damages to his car he said occurred when he hit an unprotected hole on Commerce St. off 3rd St. It was referred to the claims committee.

Mayor William Dougherty's report for July showed $663.70 collected in fines and fees.

Auditor Edgar S. Davidson's report showed a balance of $110,293.54 and the report of Treasurer Tom Grafton showed a balance of $111,632.14, with outstanding checks totaling $1,338.60.

LISBON — The Ferris Coal Co. this morning reported to Sheriff Russell J. Van Fossan a burglary of its garage on Route 170 south of East Palestine. An investigation is under way.

public knew what that stand was.

Here's the way it happened: The Republican presidential candidate was on the Sundance, an 83-foot borrowed yacht, cruising off California's Catalina Island in perfect lolling weather.

But if the waters were calm there, they weren't off Viet Nam, where U.S. destroyers were being attacked.

Three times Johnson tried to reach Goldwater at sea. Three times he failed because of what a Goldwater news aide called "lousy reception."

When Goldwater finally reached shore, he called the President at 7:07 p.m., California time, listened to what Johnson planned to say, and promptly gave this statement:

"I am sure that every American will subscribe to the actions outlined in the President's statement."

"I believe it is the only thing that he can do under the circumstances. We cannot allow the American flag to be shot at anywhere on earth if we are to retain our respect and prestige."

At the airport before leaving for Washington, Goldwater told a newsman of his talk with the President.

"I told him that I thought all Americans would stand behind his decision," Goldwater said.

There was no connection between his sudden departure and the Viet Nam crisis. It had been announced previously that he would leave today.

Walter Jordan, 49, of Columbia Dr., Chester, was treated for dog bites of the left thigh.

Coconut is delicious sprinkled over a white frosting atop a white, yellow or banana cake. For extra interest, blend the coconut with grated lemon rind. The blending job will be easiest if you turn flaked coconut into a bowl, sprinkle it with lemon rind and then work together with the back of a wooden spoon. Use 1/4 teaspoon of rind to 1/2 cup coconut.

when the drill came near some dynamite charges placed just prior to the cave-in.

On Monday, two new attempts were started to reach the men. However, the tapping had ceased and officials said it would take several days before the pocket could be reached.

The nine rescued men were hauled to the surface one at a time in a special aluminum capsule. Some smiled or waved weakly to the crowd before they were taken to a hospital for examinations and reunions with their families.

All asked for steak for their first meal. They got baths and the town barber shaved them. Officials said none seemed to have suffered any lasting ill effects.

First Concrete Poured For St. Clair Project

The first concrete was poured Tuesday afternoon for the St. Clair Ave. reconstruction project — but for the footer for a retaining wall, not for paving.

The State Highway Department's field office said Herman Bros., Inc., of Youngstown, started the pour at 2 p. m. and completed the work about 4:30. More transit mix concrete was to be poured today, also for the footer that will support a retaining wall alongside the sheer embankment that overlooks St. Clair at Highland Colony.

The contractor opened work on the retaining wall construction late last week.

Lions Net Tourney Opens Friday

The classiest field ever to perform in the East Liverpool Lions Club tennis tournament has been lined up for the fifth annual event which gets underway Friday on the Thompson Park courts.

The star-studded list shows 32 entries including some of the top amateurs in Ohio and Pennsylvania. About half the entries are rated in their respective states.

Top Players Entered Here

Firing begins Friday at 6 p. m. with singles matches with action resuming Saturday afternoon with the semi-finals and finals slated Sunday.

While 32 are entered in the singles, 18 doubles teams will compete according to Jack Smith, chairman of the Lions Club tourney.

Leading the field of netters is a standout from Pittsburgh, Bob Bennett, who is rated the No. 1 player in Western Pennsylvania. Bennett has won about every tournament played in the Pittsburgh area.

Chick Welcher of Youngstown has entered to defend his singles title won last year.

Another past winner is in the fold. Amedeo DiNardo, who won the first tournament ever held in East Liverpool, has entered.

Among the local entries are Tim Archer, Art Turner Jr. and Laurin Stacey.

Trophies will be presented to the winners in the singles and doubles.

Giants May Fire Al Dark Before 1964 Season Ends

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Al Dark, whose San Francisco Giants are locked in a battle with the Philadelphia Phillies for the National League pennant, will not be back as manager next year, The Associated Press was told today by a club official.

Dark's dismissal may be imminent. According to the source, it would not be too great a surprise if Dark were fired before the end of the season — perhaps even before the end of the month.

Dark has been managing the Giants since 1961. He led the club to a pennant after a playoff with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1962 but the Giants lost the World Series in seven games to the New York Yankees. The Giants finished third last year.

The Giants currently are in second place, 1½ games behind the Phillies. The Giants picked up one-half game on the idle Phillies Tuesday night with a 4-3 triumph over the New York Mets in 11 innings.

Reported statements of prejudicial nature by Dark against Negro players — charges which he has denied — have nothing to do with Dark's untenable position, according to the source.

Dark, at a hastily called press conference Tuesday night, did what a Giant spokesman said was a "thorough and honest job of scotching these malicious accusations."

Strained relations have existed between Dark and club owner Horace Stoneham since the start of the season. A sentimental man, proud of his close relationship with his employees, Stoneham reportedly was hurt last spring by Dark's failure to inform him of a managerial offer made to him by the Houston club for 1965.

The breach has widened in recent weeks to a point where Stoneham reportedly has decided a change in managers was necessary.

Informed of The AP's story, Dark obviously was shaken. At first he refused comment, but then said:

"I signed a two-year contract in September of 1962 and haven't discussed my future with the club since. As a matter of fact, that's against club policy."

Dark's latest difficulty stems from an article written by columnist Stan Isaacs of Newsday, a Long Island daily, which quotes him as saying Negro players are physically superior but mentally inferior to white players.

Dark, at the press conference held prior to Tuesday night's game, denied this as well as other statements attributed to him by Isaacs, who also quoted Dark as having said:

"We (the Giants) have trouble because we have so many Negro and Spanish speaking players on this team. They are just not able to perform up to the white ball players when it comes to mental alertness."

Isaacs visited with me in San Francisco two weeks ago and we discussed what was wrong with the club," said Dark. "There was nothing racial involved. The story in the papers implied that it was."

"I was definitely misquoted on some of the things I said and other statements were deformed. I don't think Isaacs meant to do me any harm. I think it was a misunderstanding. A case of misinterpretation. He came to me after the story had appeared and apologized. He said he had not intended it to come out the way it did."

Earlier, Dark conferred with Commissioner Ford Frick with whom he had requested a meeting to explain his views.

"I was gratified by the commissioner's words to me," Dark said. "He told me I had nothing to worry about as far as baseball was concerned. He knew my record and was convinced I could not possibly make these statements."

Isaacs, who arrived at the tail end of the press conference, held in the visiting manager's office at Shea Stadium, remained quiet throughout. Questioned by reporters after Dark had left, Isaacs said he apologized to Dark for the trouble he had caused Dark personally. He insisted the quotes were accurate.

Dark said he could only guess the reason for the article.

"I told Isaacs we were doing lots of things wrong on the field," he said. "I told him we were not running the bases right, we were throwing the wrong bases, and making all kinds of other mental errors and bonehead plays."

"We have six Negro and Spanish speaking players on the regular team and I think he just took it for granted I said those things because I am a Southerner and they are Negroes."

"If you are going to make such statements, you've got to be either stupid or ready to quit baseball. I don't think I am stupid and I don't want to remain in baseball."

Pitching Coach Jim Turner of the Cincinnati Reds broke in as a pitcher in 1925 with Winston-Salem of the Piedmont League.

South Siders Nips Central In Playoff

South Side broke a 2-2 tie with a run in the last of the ninth inning to nip Central Service, 3-2, and gain a spot in the Colt League playoffs.

The victory will send South Side against the Dentists today at 5 in the first of the best of two-out-of-three series. The second game is set for Friday at 6 p.m.

South Side scored the winning run in the ninth on a hit, stolen base and an error.

Bill Wright pitched the first seven frames giving up only two hits. Verzellia came in the eighth inning and picked up the mound victory. Calhoun, who relieved Hall in the seventh was the losing pitcher. Verzellia didn't allow a hit in his two inning appearance.

South Side showed nine hits including a triple and single by Shroades and two hits each by Ashcroft and Owens.

Reds Greet Hutch With 2 Wins

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cincinnati Reds planned a perfect homecoming for Fred Hutchinson and they weren't about to let the weather or the Milwaukee Braves get in their way.

It looked for awhile like the Reds wouldn't be able to play one game Tuesday night but before the evening was over they had beaten the Braves twice 5-2 and 4-2.

Hutchinson, who had been hospitalized for a week, returned to the club but left the bench midway through the first game, which was delayed three times by rain. He watched the remainder of the two-night doubleheader from Reds' President Bill DeWitt's box.

LA Trips Pirates Twice

The Reds couldn't have put on a better show if they had rehearsed it. The first game was delayed 43 minutes right at the start but when the Reds finally came to bat, Deron Johnson clouted a three-run homer for a quick 3-0 Cincinnati lead.

In between rain delays, the Braves had trimmed Cincinnati's lead to 3-2. But Leo Cardenas' two-run triple in the seventh clinched it.

John Edwards' run-producing single broke a 2-2 tie in the seventh inning of the nightcap helping the Reds wrap up the sweep. In other National League action, San Francisco struggled 14 innings before edging New York 4-3, Chicago blanked St. Louis 4-0 and Los Angeles swept a two-night doubleheader from Pittsburgh 5-1 and 10-7.

The Reds' double victory moved Cincinnati within 3½ games of National League-leading Philadelphia and only two games back of the second place Giants.

Jim O'Toole went the route in the nightcap, winning his 12th in-16 decisions. Bob Purkey (5-6) won the opener with ninth inning help from Sammy Ellis.

Hutchinson, fighting a chest cancer, was hospitalized for tests last Monday. The 44-year-old manager spent most of his time in bed but told reporters he had watched some of the Reds' games on television during his hospital stay. He couldn't have enjoyed any of them as much as the double welcome home gift his club presented him with Tuesday.

Jim Davenport's 14th inning hit-and-run single scored Jose

Pagan from first and ended another Giants-Mets marathon. San Francisco had taken a 3-1 lead in the 11th on Orlando Cepeda's two-run single but Jim Hickman tied it again for the Mets with a pinch single in the bottom of the inning.

The last time the Giants and Mets played in New York, they went 23 innings and nearly 7½ hours before San Francisco won.

Former Cardinal Lew Burdette pitched his first shutout in more than a year as the Cubs blanked St. Louis. Billy Williams clouted his 25th homer for Chicago and Burdette won his eighth game, seven of them coming after he was traded to the Cubs in May.

Sandy Koufax became the first pitcher to win 16 games but needed ninth inning help from Bob Miller to wrap up the first game victory against the Pirates. Koufax allowed six hits, struck out six and walked five before leaving with the bases loaded in the ninth. Miller got Bob Bailey to line into a double play ending the game.

Willie Davis stole three bases and scored each time to help the Dodgers complete the sweep. Derrell Griffith clubbed a three-run homer in the nightcap and Tommy Davis hit safely in both games running his consecutive game streak to 16.

reach the point of no return tonight when they meet in the third and final game which will decide the championship in the National Division of the Little League. The contest is set at Thompson Park.

The Medics evened the playoff series at 1-1 Tuesday with a 5-2 victory on the pitching and batting of J. Moore.

Moore hurled a one-hitter for the Medics, fanned 11 batters and drove in three runs with a double and single.

The Medics broke on top with two runs in the third, two more in the fourth and one in the fifth. Burbick's scored both runs in the fourth inning. The Medics committed four errors during the contest.

J. Parson and S. Frederick added two singles to the Medics' attack.

Doesn't Anyone Want AL Pennant?, Top Contenders 'Boot' Contest

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Doesn't anyone here want that pennant?

That was the big question in the American League today after the three top contenders played a kick-the-game-away Tuesday night.

Here's the way it went:

The first-place New York Yankees held a 1-0 lead on Mickey Mantle's homer and were cruising behind ace left-hander Whitey Ford when sure-fingered Tony Kubek suddenly committed two errors in two innings and helped Kansas City to a 5-1 victory.

The second-place Baltimore Orioles were locked in a scoreless battle with Los Angeles until the fourth inning when Norm Siebern dropped a two-out foul pop and the Angels rushed across five runs and went on to a 5-0 triumph.

The third-place Chicago White Sox were leading Detroit 3-0 and left-hander Gary Peters had allowed only a bunt single through seven innings when he came apart, was slammed for four runs and a 4-3 defeat by the Tigers.

The frantic fumbling left the Yankees one percentage point ahead of the Orioles with the White Sox a full game back.

Elsewhere, Harmon Killebrew stroked three singles and his 37th homer, leading a five-homer barrage that carried Minnesota to a 12-4 walloping of Boston and Steve Ridzik preserved Washington's 4-2 victory over Cleveland with 7 1-3 innings of two-hit relief pitching.

Ford, who had missed two turns on the mound because of a hip injury, got himself into a jam in the sixth when he issued walks to Ed Charles and Jim Gentile. Kubek helped him stay in it.

When Doc Edwards doubled, scoring Charles, Kubek let Tom Tresh's throw from the outfield get by him and Gentile also scored, bringing in the lead run. In the seventh, Kubek let Wayne Causey get to second base by throwing wild on his grounder and Charles doubled Causey home.

Ford, losing his fourth against 12 victories, pitched a strong game but his control was off. He gave up only four hits, but walked six.

Dave Vineyard started for the Orioles and ran into difficulty in the fourth when the Angels loaded the bases with two out on two walks and a double by Willie Smith. Pitcher Don Lee then lofted a foul pop that Siebern dropped.

Lee immediately popped a single into left, scoring two runs. Bob Perry doubled home another, and after Dick Hall replaced Vineyard, Jim Fregosi wrapped it up with a two-run single.

Peters, 12-6, had allowed only Jerry Lumpe's safe bunt in the third inning when Jake Wood opened the eighth for the Tigers with a single.

Singles by Lumpe and George Thomas brought in one run before Don Demeter crashed a three-run homer that cracked the White Sox' five-game winning streak.

Killebrew's three-run homer broke open a tight game in the seventh with the Twins leading by only 5-4. Killebrew drove in four runs for a total of 85, one shy of Boston's league-leading Dick Stuart.

Tony Oliva, Bob Allison, Rich Rollins and Earl Battey also homered in support of Jim Grant, 9-7. Bill Monbouquette, 7-9, lost it.

Ridzik's sharp relief work — he allowed only singles by Chico Salmon in the fourth and the ninth — got the job done for the Senators after they scored four

Boston Gets Al Smith, Pinch Hit Duties Eyed
MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — Veteran outfielder Al Smith, released by the Cleveland Indians last Friday, has been signed by Boston, a Red Sox spokesman said Tuesday night.

The Sox did not indicate their immediate plans for Smith, but it's believed he will be used chiefly for pinch hitting.

Smith, 36, began his major league career with the Indians 12 years ago and returned to the Tribe last winter in a deal with Baltimore. The Orioles got Willie Kirkland and threw in $50,000 as well.

Navy won its fifth straight NCAA lacrosse championship last spring.

Post 374 Blanks Lisbon Nine, 7-0

Post 374, warming up for its appearance in the Hot Stove League tournament Saturday, blanked Lisbon, 7-0, Tuesday at Lisbon.

The victory was the fifth in a row for the locals and their 12th out of their last 13th.

Jim Hissom fashioned a neat two-hitter in pitching Post 374 to its latest victory. He fanned 11 batters. East Liverpool scored two runs each in the first, third and fifth frames and added one in the sixth.

Dick Heddleston led a nine-hit attack for the locals by clubbing a double and two singles. The game was called at the end of six innings because of darkness.

Lawrenceville Nips Newell In South Side Tilt

Newell, which has already clinched the senior division title in the South Side Hot Stove League received some fine pitching from Bob Walls and Gary Ring but dropped a 2-1 decision to Lawrenceville Tuesday at Clark Field.

Walls fanned 13 and gave up one hit and one run in seven innings and Ring worked two innings giving up a run, a hit and showed four strikeouts.

Lawrenceville broke a 1-1 tie with a run in the ninth inning. Schladen pitched seven innings for Lawrenceville and fanned 11 while Dave Cashdollar picked up the victory working the last two innings.

Bunner came up with one of Lawrenceville's two hits and scored both runs while Brewer got the other hit to drive in the winning run in the ninth.

Bob Juszczak drove in Newell's lone run.

Movie Of Masters Tourney Screened For Rotary Club

A documentary color film of the 1964 Masters Golf Tournament, highlighted by scenes of almost incredible iron play by Latrobe's Arnold Palmer, was screened by Mike Turk at the Rotary Club's meeting Tuesday noon in the Travelers Hotel.

Palmer, three times Masters champion, led from start to finish in his successful bid for an unprecedented fourth crown. He carded rounds of 69-68-69-70—276, only two strokes off Ben Hogan's record in the event.

The heavy-hitting Palmer was the center of attraction in the 50-minute film narrated by Chris Shenkle, although there were also scenes of other stars, including Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player, Hogan and Bruce Devlin.

Palmer's fantastic iron play helped account for his victory, delighting a huge crowd of supporters billed as "Arnie's Army."

Palmer won by six strokes over Nicklaus and Dave Marr of Texas, who tied for second.

Four prominent local golfers viewed the film with club members, Andy Petrick, pro at the Country Club; Joseph M. Wells, M. W. Thompson and Dr. Arthur Cloran. Visiting Rotarians were Theodore Koenig of New Brighton, former band director of Wellsville High School, and Cecil M. Ward of Mobile, Ala., who taught school in Chester many years ago.

Alvin T. Babb, president, presided. Larry Walton was projectionist.

Six former Open champions were in this year's event at Congressional in Washington, D.C. They were Julius Boros, Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Gene Littler, Ed Furgol and Billy Casper.

Survey Reveals Supply Of Water

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio's Miami Valley area lies over an underground water supply that may be a key factor in the industrial and economic development of the area, the Interior Department said today.

The department released a report on geological and seismic studies of the region conducted in cooperation with the Miami Conservancy District and the Ohio Division of Water.

Andrew M. Speiker, survey geologist and co-author of the report, said the submerged, water-bearing valley lies in Montgomery, Warren and Butler counties.

He said the seismic studies did not allow the scientists to define specific underground water channels, but did enable them to differentiate between bedrock — which does not hold water — and areas containing deposits of glacial sands, clays, and gravels which because of their high porosity are sources of ground water.

Yesterday's Stars

BATTING — Harmon Killebrew, Twins, slammed four hits, including his 37th homer, driving in four runs as Minnesota romped to 12-4 victory over Boston.

PITCHING — Steve Ridzik, Senators, allowed only two hits in 7 1/3 innings of relief work, preserving Washington's 4-2 triumph over Cleveland.

Ninth Child Expected For Robert Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. and Mrs. Robert F. Kennedy are expecting their ninth child in December, according to a friend of the family.

The Kennedys now have five boys and three girls. The youngest, Christopher George Kennedy, was born July 4, 1963.

Kennedy is 38 and his wife, the former Ethel Skakel of Greenwich, Conn., is 36. They were married in 1950.

Coach Elmer Valo of the Cleveland Indians broke in as an outfielder with Federalburg in the Eastern Shore League in 1939. He played 1,806 major league games.

Third In A Series
'My Greatest Thrill'
Winning First National League Game, Brown Says

By PAUL E. BROWN (For The Associated Press)

The biggest single thrill I ever got out of my coaching career was the first game the Cleveland Browns played in the National Football League.

We had won the championships in the All-America Conference for the four years of its existence. Finally, upon its failure, we were admitted to the National League.

As far as I was concerned, this pleased me. I was weary of the problems from within that eventually wrecked the All-America Conference.

Commissioner Bert Bell of the National League made the playing schedule for that organization, and the members of the league approved. There is no doubt what they had in mind when they matched up with the National League champions, the Philadelphia Eagles, in the 1950 opener.

I'm sure they envisioned a big game—but I'm just as certain they didn't foresee what was to happen to the Eagles!

It was a big crowd, all right. Some 80,000 fans turned out at Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium to see the test.

And were we ready!

I want to be the first to admit that the psychological advantage were all with our team. For almost five years we had been taunted and degraded about the quality of our football.

The former commissioner of the National League told us to "go get a football" when a play-off game was suggested. Our desire had been whetted by about five years of waiting and frustration.

Our team reached the highest emotional point I have ever seen a team attain. I told our staff that I hoped we could get them on the field before they exploded.

For about two years we, as a staff, had been thinking about this game. We scouted the Eagles whenever possible. We talked about them and unconsciously began to make plans for them. When time would permit we would try little experiments during practice.

This was especially true against the so-called "Eagle defense." We found, for example, that we could gradually widen our offensive line spacing which created a difficult situation for their five-man spacing without a middle linebacker. I'm sure some of these experiments hastened the obsolescence of the "Eagle defense."

The final score of the game was 35 to 10 in favor of Cleveland.

We also scored several other times, but had them called back for over-zealous play. Our blocking on punt returns and other open field work was the most vicious I have ever seen. This is where the willingness to pay the price really shows up.

One incident illustrates the state of mind of our men.

Dante Lavelli, our great offensive end, caught a scoring pass from Otto Graham as he ran under the goal posts—about a foot from one of them. He was looking backwards at the time, taking in the pass.

I said to him later:

"Dante, did you know how close you came to running into that goal post while looking behind you?"

I'll never forget the vehemence in his voice as he replied: "Coach, I didn't care where that goal post was!"

I think I should point out that this Cleveland Browns team was a couple of years past its age peak when this game was played. Maybe the taunts and jibes over the years just served to heighten the peak which these veterans were able to reach.

Today I am a National Leaguer. I think I know what must have gone through the minds of this organization.

I know one thing—we paid for it for years! We were somebody's Big Game, week after week. Of course, we won championships, and to point for the champion was only natural. In our particular case, I think it came easy.

However, this still doesn't take away from me the satisfaction that went with our efforts on this memorable night.

I must say, that on this occasion, this was the greatest football team I have ever seen.

House Nears Tight Vote On Poverty Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The $962.5-million war-on-poverty bill bearing the LBJ brand reaches the House floor today, and anxious administration leaders are still checking on their votes.

Three days of debate and amendment have been scheduled for the omnibus bill, which combines attacks on poverty through a youth job corps, community action projects, work-training programs, loans to rural families and many other aspects.

Speaker John W. McCormack said Tuesday he expects a vote on the measure Friday. The speaker and other Democratic House leaders told President Johnson they have high hopes the bill will win House passage.

Republicans have lined up solidly against the administration bill at every step of the way.

Only last week four GOP members of the House Education and Labor Committee said the bill is "beyond repair or redemption through floor amendments."

But the bill's backers plan to offer amendments on the floor which would bring the House measure into line with a $947.5-million bill passed by the Senate.

They believe the Senate changes answer the strongest criticisms that have been raised by the bill's opponents.

Chief among these Senate changes:

Elimination of a provision for grants of up to $1,500 for low-income rural families. Only loans are provided in the Senate bill.

Elimination of a provision by which the director of the program could buy up rural properties, develop the land into family farm units, and sell these to low-income families.

Giving the governors of states veto power over any job corps camp or center in his state.

Banning direct contributions to private agencies in connection with work-training programs.

PLUNGES AFTER CRASH. Nicholas Gruber, 49, of 4 East Dr., Midland, suffered possible fractures of the ribs when his 1957 sedan plunged off the Midland Rd. early today after it was struck by another car driven by Ronald N. Groscof of Beaver that veered left of center, according to Midland police. Gruber was reported in "fair" condition at City Hospital. Gruber's car was listed as a total loss while Groscof's 1963 convertible received $500 damage, according to police, who reported Groscof said he had dozed off. The collision occurred at 5:10 a.m. about a mile west of Midland.

Hancock To Spend $21,700 In Re-Indexing Of Records

Expenditure of $21,700 over a three-year period for re-indexing of the deed and deed-of-trusts records in the Hancock County Courthouse was approved by County Commissioners William C. Graham of Chester and James Finley of Weirton Tuesday.

The Call Re-Indexing Co. of Columbus was awarded the contract. Nelson Ball, president of the concern, said the project will include microfilming the records and use of electronic tape, and will take approximately 30 months to complete.

The contract calls for the county to pay $7,000 of the cost this year, $8,000 in 1965 and $6,700 in 1966.

There is a provision that if the work is completed and the full amount paid in two years, the county will receive a discount of 3 per cent.

Commissioners also approved expenditure of $7,500 for construction of living quarters for cooks at the group camp at Tomlinson Run State Park. The work will be done by N. T. Holbrook, park superintendent, and a crew of park employees.

Purchase of a new pickup truck from Temple Motor Co. of Chester for the county dog ward was also approved. The cost will be $1,100 with the trade-in of a 1961 model truck.

Commissioners tabled action on a proposal of the County Planning Commission for construction of a nursing home for the county. Graham said it would mean commissioners would have to float a bond issue to finance half the cost of the $665,440 project, and said he "doesn't want to go into debt if he can help it."

The application of Stephen M. Yurka, 1101 Chestnut St., New Cumberland, as a notary public was approved.

Children Due Tests To Enroll In School

Tests for children who will enter first grade in the Western Beaver County School District, and have not previously been tested, will be held Aug. 17 at 1 p. m. at the Snyder School at Industry.

Parents of children who have not been tested are to contact the school, phone 634-2391, by Aug. 17. Vaccination and birth certificates should be brought. Any new residents of the district with children entering the elementary schools may call the office of the elementary principal, Donald E. Bradshaw, at 643-6536 after Aug. 17, to register them.

Patrol Investigates 93 Accidents In July

State Highway Patrol officers at the Lisbon Barracks investigated 93 accidents during July, according to a monthly report of activities.

There was one fatal accident with one killed. There were 31 injury accidents in which 57 were hurt.

A total of 375 arrests were made and 399 written warnings issued.

Officers assisted 39 motorists on the roadway.

330 Receive X-Ray

LISBON — The Ohio Department of Health X-Ray cruiser gave free chest X-rays Tuesday to 330 adults — 256 in the forenoon at Lisbon and 74 late evening at Rogers. The unit is in Leetonia and Columbiana today and will return to Lisbon Thursday for a 11 a. m. to 5 p. m. stop in front of the Courthouse.

The Panama and Cape Cod canals were opened within a two-week period in 1914.

Post Gets Air Conditioning

Wellsville American Legion Post 70 is being completely air conditioned and the project should be completed by Saturday.

This was included in a report presented by Sam Maylone, commander, at a meeting Monday night. The Sayre Electric Co. of East Liverpool is the contractor.

Harry Crawford reported on the band concert presented Sunday afternoon at the Roadside Park by American Federation of Musicians Lodge 172.

Harry Excell said plans are nearly complete for the family picnic Sunday at Westville Lake.

Jerome Gitschier presented the finance committee report and said another meeting will be held in the near future. Daun Gitschier, ways and means chairman, said a corn roast and hamburger fry will be held in the near future at the Roadside Park. Atty. Delmar T. O'Hara will be in charge.

An August birthday dance will be held Saturday night beginning at 10. The Blue Shades will provide the music. Francis House, adjutant, will present cakes to those with birthday anniversaries in August.

Ray Dickey gave the building committee report. Robert Beresford said there still are minor details to complete the kitchen. The executive committee met after the regular session.

Beaver Group's Concession Set

Plans were made to conduct a concession stand at the Calcutta firemen's carnival when the Beaver Local Music Association met Tuesday night at the Public School.

Mrs. Norma Stone presented information on candy to be sold at the booth and by members of the band.

The group decided to send "pledge letters" for funds needed to purchase new uniforms to the parents of all junior and senior high school band members.

Mrs. Gerry Snyder showed a series of colored slides of the band in parades on Memorial Day and July 4th.

Joe Catagani, president, presided. Next regular meeting will be held Sept. 1 at the Public School.

Fight Injures 2 In East End; Man, 45, Held

A knife and a bottle were wielded as weapons in a fight early today at an East End home that left one man hospitalized and another in jail, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, police reported.

Lloyd Fielding, 52, of 1033 Commerce St., Wellsville, was in "fair" condition at City Hospital with a severe laceration of the right temple area and scalp that officers said resulted from a knife wound.

John Holland, 45, of 1240 Pennsylvania Ave., also injured in the fracas, was lodged in jail after he had been treated at the hospital for a laceration of the left arm and contusions on the left front of his head and cheek.

Police said Fielding and Holland fought at Holland's home. Holland admitted wielding the knife that wounded Fielding, police said. Holland said he was struck on the head with a beer bottle by Fielding, officers reported.

Police were advised of the incident at 12:10 this morning in a telephone call to Patrolman Robert Duffy, desk officer at headquarters.

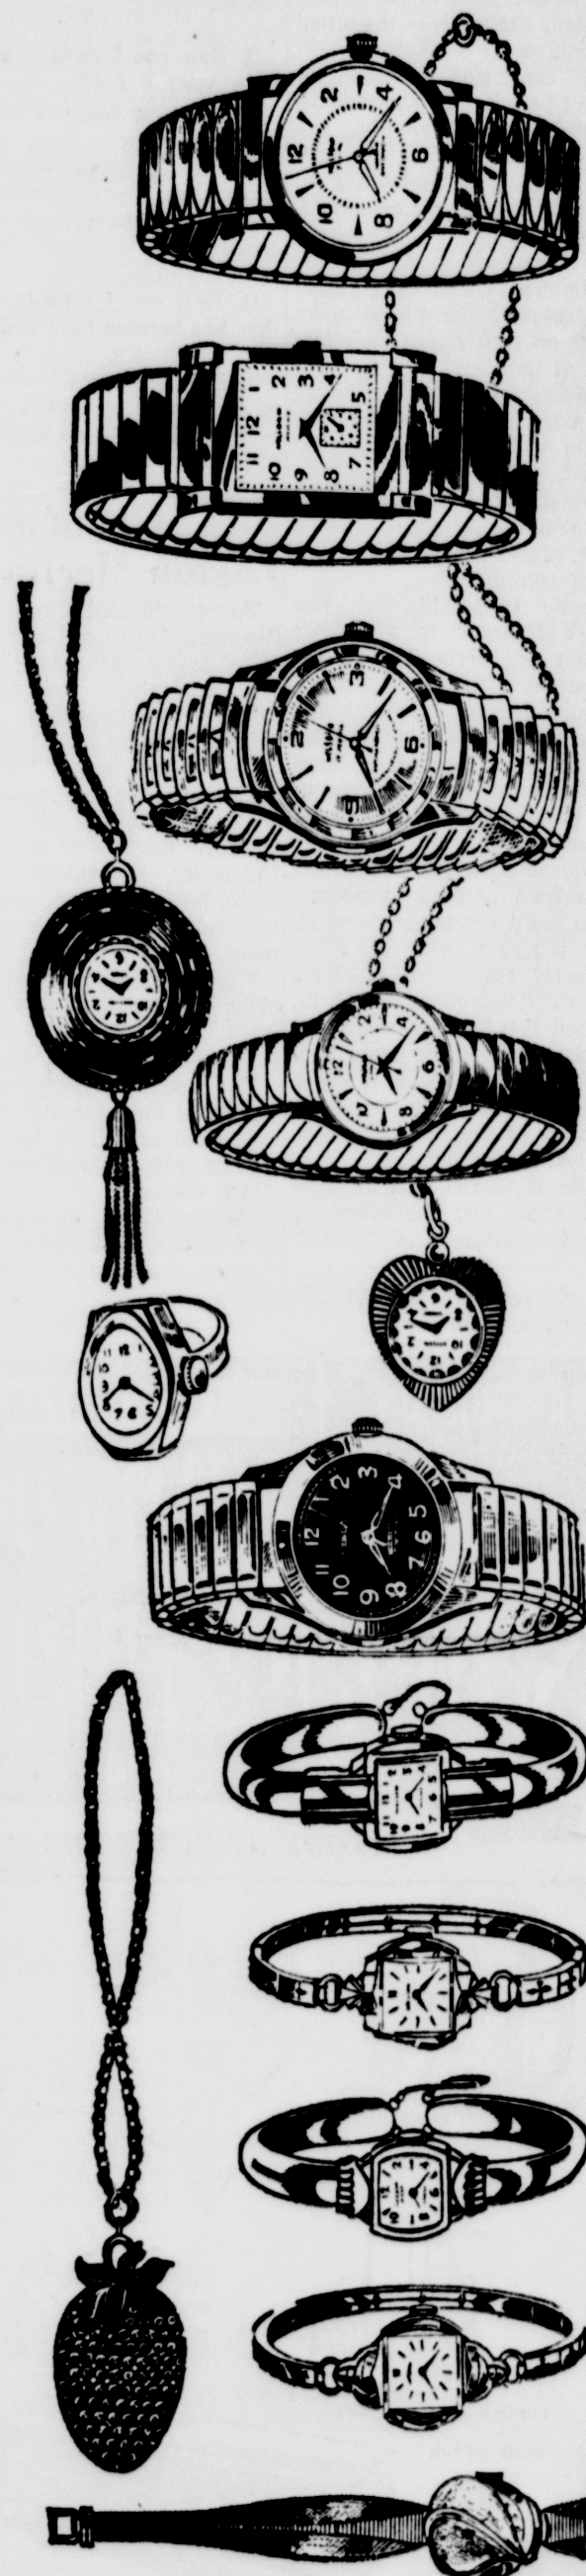

Patrolman Ronald J. Brookes said he was on cruiser duty in East End when he received a radio call to investigate a fight in the vicinity of the old bus barn on Pennsylvania Ave. On arrival, he found no fight there, but some persons nearby directed him to the scene, he said.

Officer Brookes said he found Fielding lying on the ground with cuts or stab wounds about the head and face and bleeding "very heavily." He summoned an ambulance.

The patrolman said he talked with Fielding, who named Holland as his assailant. A man in the crowd pointed out a woman as Holland's wife, he said. Talking with Mrs. Holland, he learned that the man had gone to his home, he said.

The patrolman left another man to attend Fielding and went to Holland's home to take him into custody. Holland said Fielding had struck him on the head with a beer bottle, the officer said. Holland also said he wielded the knife that cut Fielding. Holland was bleeding from a wound on his forehead.

145 West Fifth Street Dial FU 5-3680
East Liverpool, Ohio

Dear friends,

If the bereaved family has definite church affiliations, the choice of clergyman for the funeral service is rather automatic. In other circumstances, the funeral director will assist in securing a clergyman. Naturally the time of the funeral service should not be set without the concurrence of the officiating clergyman.

Respectfully,

Richard C. Martin

Stop Sign Set For Chester Intersection

Erection of a two-way stop sign at the intersection of 3rd St. and Louisiana Ave., in a move to halt speeders, was approved by Chester City Council Tuesday night.

Approval followed a motion for erecting the traffic sign by Councilman Donald Hissam, and the second by member Percy Willison, chairman of the street committee.

In discussion, Councilman Charles Kology suggested a campaign against "speeding and hot - rodding" be started, adding, "There's no use putting up signs if they are not enforced."

Kology said: "There have been no arrests in a long time for failure to obey stop signs" and hinted at police department laxity on traffic sign violations several times.

"More arrests might educate the public on the penalties for traffic violations," Kology declared.

Police Chief Harold Davis and Patrolman Clarence Bebout were present, with neither offering comment.

Repair of 1st St. Ext. was asked of Council by a resident of that neighborhood, who said the street is in "awful shape."

A spokesman for three residents of the 1st St. area said the street has not been repaired in three years. Council's street committee, headed by Willison, agreed to investigate.

Willison reported some streets have been patched in preparation for the summer street repair program, and the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. has patched the crossing at 9th St.

Council also heard a report that residents behind the junior high school are complaining of perils posed by two dead trees on property of the Hancock County Board of Education.

Bills of $883.98 were ordered paid. Clerk Roy Cashdollar reported remittances of $7,222.84.

A chicken sold for $2.126 in Greenville, Ohio, in 1917.

How Can I? By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I lock a nut into place, if I am without lock washers and I suspect the nut might eventually work loose?

A.—After tightening the nut into position, use a center punch, placing this in the middle of the bolt end and giving it a sharp rap with your hammer. This will spread the bolt slightly and prevent the nut from working off without being forced.

Q. How can I remove an ink stain from a rug?

A. Make a paste of butter-milk and starch, apply to the spot, and leave on for two or three days. Then rinse and let dry. Repeat the process if necessary.

Q. How can I remedy sugar that has become hard and lumpy?

A. Put the sugar into a covered receptacle and place in the refrigerator for a few days. This will soften it.

20 At Glenmoor Legion Meeting

Twenty attended a meeting of Glenmoor American Legion Post 736 Tuesday night when James G. Cunningham and Leward Potts were accepted as new members.

Mike Fisher, son of Frank Fisher Jr. of the Calcutta-Smiths Ferry Rd., told of his trip to Buckeye Boys State at Ohio University at Athens. While there, he served as a state representative in the mock government.

The post voted to proceed with plans to sponsor a Cub Scout Pack. The details will be worked out later with scout officials.

The annual post picnic will be Sunday at Lake Samary. A covered dinner will be served at 3 p. m. with the auxiliary providing chicken.

William Wilson, second vice commander, is in charge. Ed Bowyer, commander, conducted business.

Next meeting is Aug. 18.

Hearnes Gets Missouri Win

WASHINGTON (AP) — Missouri Democrats apparently gave Secretary of State Warren E. Hearnes their nomination for governor in an upset Tuesday and renominated Rep. Richard Bolling as three states held primaries.

Hearnes held to a margin of more than 30,000 votes over Lt. Gov. Hilary A. Bush early today, and his campaign staff claimed victory. Bush was backed by former President Harry S. Truman and retiring John M. Dalton.

If his margin holds up,

Hearnes, 40, would face Republican Ethan Shepley in November in normally Democratic Missouri.

Bolling, Sen. Stuart Symington and all other incumbent congressmen won easily.

In Missouri's predominantly Republican neighbor, Kansas, the GOP gubernatorial primary held top billing. Rep. William H. Avery emerged with a margin of some 6,000 votes over the nearest of seven opponents.

Avery had resigned as a member of the powerful House Rules Committee to make the race. Nearly complete returns gave him 72,870 votes to 66,073 for McDill Boyd and 59,111 for State Sen. Paul R. Wunsch.

Avery's November opponent will be State Corporation Commissioner Harry G. Wiles who swamped five foes.

Bolling, a powerful Johnson Administration voice in the House Rules Committee, had been challenged by Judge Hunter Phillips.

Symington, seeking a third senate term, defeated two little-known challengers and faces Republican Jean Paul Bradshaw, one-time candidate for governor, in November.

In Idaho, Chief Justice E. T. Knudsen won a second six-year term on the State Supreme Court in the chief contest. Knudsen easily defeated former state Atty. Gen. Frank L. Benson.

Legion Group Gives Report

Members of American Legion Post 374 heard reports from the four delegates who attended the state convention in Cincinnati July 24-26 during a meeting Monday night in the East End home.

James Wallover, Robert Landfried, John Long and Cliff Frederick gave their reports.

James Cregar, commander, presided and reported a new 21-inch color TV set had been purchased for the post.

Cregar also said the annual family picnic will be held Sunday at Valley Park near Rogers. Activities will begin at noon and a lunch will be served at 4.

Beginning at the next meeting Monday night at 8, the first in a series of films entitled, "Peace Through Understanding," will be shown. The monthly film program, based on the theme of the New York World's Fair, will be featured at the post's regular sessions. Lunch was served by William Reagle and his kitchen committee.

A dance will be held Saturday night from 10 to 1 a. m. in the post home and Tom Collela and his band from the East Palestine area will provide the music.

Federal Aide Dies

BOSTON (AP) — Harold C. Woodward, 61, a member of the Federal Power Commission, died of a heart attack Tuesday night after disembarking from a plane. Woodward, a Republican, was given an interim appointment to the commission in March 1962 by the late President John F. Kennedy. The following June he was appointed to a full five-year term.

The wigs worn by English barristers were made from hair that grows on the teeth of whales.

Pentagon Crisis

Tension Has Become A Way Of Life

By ELTON C. FAY
WASHINGTON (AP)—A crisis has become a way of life in the Pentagon.

The Red patrol boat attacks on American destroyers in international waters off the North Viet Nam coast is only the latest in a series of alarms that have been sounding with growing frequency in almost two decades of cold war tension.

With the exception of Korea, the incidents have been Communist testing of free world determination. In one, the Cuban missile showdown, nations hovered on the brink of atomic war.

Always there was the chance that an incident and its reactions could flare into major war. And this is true of the naval clashes between the United States naval vessels and the patrol boats of North Viet Nam. Red China, powerful ally of the Vietnamese Communists, is close—and watchful.

The Pentagon has filed packed with plans for coping with contingencies. The plans have existed and been constantly revised for years. They cover a broad spectrum of probable, possible or remotely conceivable emergencies.

Thus, it may be said that when the Defense Department ordered the close-in patrol by surface ships in the Gulf of Tonkin off the Red Vietnamese coast, it considered and put into a contingency plan things that might evolve from the patrol.

The planners certainly were aware the destroyer patrols might draw Red reaction. They assessed the capabilities of the North Vietnamese to react alone or in concert with their big neighbor to the north. When the destroyer patrols were started more than a year ago, a carrier was kept steaming near the mouth of the gulf, ready to send her planes to help the destroys if they encountered shooting trouble. When the Tonkin Gulf situation moved from a contingency situation into a sea battle, the plan went into operation. A quick radio message from the destroyer brought fighter plane help from a carrier.

In Tuesday's engagement planes were in the area above the destroyers Maddox and C. Turner Joy, on President Johnson's orders, when PT boats darted in through a storm and a three-hour battle opened.

In the opening incident Sunday, the Maddox radioed its call for air help from the carrier without doing it because of the extreme urgency of the situation. This is accepted procedure in such critical moments.

Both military and civilian chiefs in Washington were informed of the attack almost before the echoes of gunfire had died away.

This is made possible under the elaborate worldwide communications system, maintained as part of the over-all command and control setup. With this system, all interested officials, from the President on down, can communicate with commanders in the field anywhere—instantly.

A "command and control" system has existed since the beginning of World War II. But with improvements in equipment and the deadly danger growing out of missile warfare perfection, it has been expanded and improved.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara uses the communications network to make his own personal, surprise tests to see if everything is working. The system also requires that the whereabouts of each military official in the upper and operating echelons be known constantly, including the President.

Amish Plan Barn Lights By Batteries

CLEVELAND (AP)—An estimated 1,500 Orthodox Amish farmers in northeastern Ohio have been granted permission to light their cow barns with 12-volt battery systems so they can continue selling milk in the Cleveland market.

The farmers' religion forbids them from using electricity, but such an arrangement has been allowed on previous occasions as long as the power was not extended to the Amish homes.

Bishops in charge of interpretation of the Amish religion for various groups believe that television sets cannot be run from the 12-volt batteries, thus avoiding the temptation of sin.

Last January, the Amish men were told a certain amount of light would be required in their barns if they wanted to remain in the Cleveland grade-A milk market.

The Cleveland Division of Health set Jan. 1 for the farmers to comply with its order. Health officials said they acted merely to enforce the U. S. Public Health Service requirement that all milk barns be lighted enough for supervision of milking and cleaning operations.

Zoltan Palitz, chief milk inspector for Cleveland who enforces the federal regulations, said he thought the compromise the Amish worked out would be acceptable.

"As long as the Amish will light their barns, we won't make a fuss over how they care to do it," said Palitz.

Mose J. Hostalter of Millersburg, a director of the Amish Milk Producers Federation, was credited with working out the plan. It will cost the Amish farmer about $250 to install the 12-volt batteries in his milk house.

Ohio Wins 2 National Safety Check Awards

Columbus Public Schools won the grand award of the "Circle of Safety" award for the most outstanding youth support of a community safety-check program.

Extension Plans Of Sewer Aired

Chester City Council held a lengthy discussion on the sewer disposal plant and sewer system under construction, and a proposed related project, at its meeting Tuesday night.

More than an hour of discussion was held on a proposed extension of an eight-inch interceptor sewer on Pyramus Ave. and Orion St., after two Orion St. residents asked for "instruction of procedure" on such an improvement.

AN ESTIMATE of the cost of the Orion Ave. sewer extension, based on the bid submitted by R. K. McKee, prime contractor for the city's interceptor sewer system, was presented Council and the two residents by Dave Taylor and Gary Keith, engineers with the A. R. Todd Associates, Inc., who are working for the city.

The proposal for the sewer extension, which would be a "do it yourself" type of project for the hillside community, early in the discussion.

When the engineers presented copies of the estimate cost and size of the project, Atty. Edwin Flowers of the law firm of Flowers and Atty. James Jordan, city solicitors, said he had "reservations" on a do it yourself type job.

ATTY. FLOWERS pointed to the engineer's report that the project would cover 2,272 feet of frontage, and entail street excavations. Engineering, planning and design would also have to be considered, he said.

The engineers estimated the cost of the project at $638,24. Based on the project cost and 2,272 feet of frontage, the cost to the individual per frontage foot would be $280, the engineers report said.

The W. E. Downie Co. of Poland was awarded a $181,000 contract to build the sewer treatment plant in the City Park area, and the R. K. McKee Co. of Columbiana was given a $151,000 contract for the interceptor sewer system.

The federal government is providing $117,000 in aid. The city has $25,000 in the state treasury, and it can spend for water meters or other equipment for the services.

Construction is 5 per cent completed, Keith said. The systems are due to be completed early in 1965.

Woman Has Whiplash Injury In Collision

A city woman suffered a possible whiplash injury of the neck when her car was struck in the rear Tuesday afternoon at 1:05 on Route 7 three-tenths of a mile south of Rogers.

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Ruth Smith Baughman, 49, of 2207 Pickering Ave. was not hurt when her car was hit in the rear by another operated by Edwin C. Rowland, 27, of Dover. The woman has been slowed for traffic, officers said.

Rowland was cited for failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

George James Krulik, 38, of Lisbon R. D. 2 reported his car was struck in a hit-skip accident Tuesday at 7:05 p. m. on Route 30 just north of East Liverpool. He provided a description of the vehicle.

The motor on a car owned by George Cramer, 876 Baxter St., was damaged when it caught fire at 9:25 p. m. on E. 6th St. It was caused by a backfire through the carburetor, which did not have an air filter, firemen said.

Rubbish caught fire in the rear of a truck at the home of John D. Jackson of the Pennsylvania Ave. Hill Rd. at 11:22 p. m. It is believed to have been caused by a lighted cigarette.

Road Bid Seen Low
LISBON — The State Highway Department at Columbus today received a bid for the resurfacing of 3.72 miles of Route 172 in West and Hanover Townships. The firm bid $24,074 for the two projects. The official estimate was $26,650.

County Lists 533 Vehicle Titles

LISBON — Columbiana County titled 533 new vehicles with a valuation of $1,981,791 during July, Clerk of Courts Carl L. Stacey reports.

The total exceeded by 90 the number of new cars titled in July last year and marked the fifth consecutive month in which new vehicles passed 500.

Stacey said he paid the state $5,565 for the collection of sales and use tax, $56,820 from the collection of the dealers tax, and $1,597 for car title fees.

The county received $8,242 in fees collected in Common Pleas Court and the Car Title Department, and $650 as its poundage fee for collection of the taxes.

The Title Department issued 4,424 auto titles, 46 duplicate titles, 1,042 memorandums, 1,638 notations of liens, 1,254 cancellations of liens and 1,241 acknowledgments.

Seventy-three civil cases were filed last month in Common Pleas Court.

Intruder Obtains $23 In Smithfield Home
An intruder who entered a North Side home Tuesday between 3 and 10 p. m. obtained about $23 in cash, police were told.

Mrs. Ludie Carman, 1905 Smithfield St., told officers an unknown person took a pocketbook containing $15 from the top of a chest of drawers.

She telephoned police again almost two and a half hours later and reported that she had taken $9 from her daughter's coin bank.

LISBON — The widow of a teacher - farmer electrocuted last Sept. 13 sued the Ohio Edison Co. for $75,000 Tuesday in Columbiana County Common Pleas Court.

A neighbor, felled by the same wire, sued the utility for $35,000.

The plaintiffs are Mrs. Katherine L. Fitzsimmons, administratrix to the estate of Roger Fitzsimmons, and Wayne Dillon, 41, both of Rogers R. D. 1. Their petitions state the firm was negligent in the maintenance of the high tension line poles and crossarms. A 7,200-volt line dropped from a pole crossarm, they say, and set fire to a field of alfalfa Mr. Fitzsimmons was harvesting on the Keys property east of Clarkson.

Mrs. Fitzsimmons says her husband, 52, ran to fight the fire and hit his head against the power line concealed in smoke.

Dillon went to help Mr. Fitzsimmons and ran into the line. He received burns of the head and feet and flash burns of the eyes. He says he was unable to

Fucy Speaks To GOP Club

Albert (Jack) Fucy of New Cumberland, named Monday as a Republican candidate for Clay District county commissioner in the November general election, addressed the Young Republican Club of Hancock County at its meeting Tuesday night in Weirton.

Fucy, chosen for a ballot place by the GOP executive committee, discussed his many successful campaigns for mayor of the county seat where he served six consecutive terms.

He told the club he was "grateful and proud" to be a part of the ticket in November. George Lesho, chairman of the executive committee, was also a guest.

The club is planning a picnic and rally and the date is pending selection of a prominent speaker by the national committee, it was announced. Mrs. Ruth Cox Turner of Chester and Ralph Patrick, candidate for county sheriff, are chairmen.

Charles Sole, president, presided at the Weirton Community Center.

How Can I? By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I remove very light burns from furniture?
A. These will sometimes disappear when rubbed with your usual polish. If not, use rottenstone or finely powdered pumice, mixed to a thin paste with raw or boiled linseed oil. Rub in the direction of the grain. Wipe with another cloth moistened with plain linseed. Repeat a number of times, if necessary, then polish.

Q. What can I do if a rubber suction-cup type of wall bracket doesn't grip a smooth, slick wall properly and is constantly falling down?
A. Try rubbing the rim of the suction cup with a little glycerin before you press it back into place. This usually affords an airtight grip.

Q. How can I prevent a dark ring around the yolk of a hard-boiled egg?
A. By boiling the egg no longer than 15 minutes, and then placing it in cold water.

County Board Skips Meeting

LISBON — James L. McBride of Lisbon, superintendent of Columbiana County schools, late Tuesday canceled a special meeting of the Board of Education called for last night.

The meeting was to have taken up his suggestion that the board hire another consultant, preferably in the elementary field. The system has one elementary supervisor and one for the high schools.

McBride said he did not find out until yesterday that a technicality in the formula for figuring teacher units would prevent the county from getting an extra consultant at state expense.

He said the county would be able to get about 70 per cent reimbursement for a third consultant's salary but the county budget could not handle the difference and there was no purpose in having the special meeting.

Earlier, McBride told the board increased pupil enrollment this fall would give the county office enough teacher units to get another supervisor with the state paying all the salary.

The board's regular meeting will be at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday, Aug. 18, in the county office at the Courthouse.

Hancock Cuts Big Precinct

Hancock County commissioners gave formal approval Tuesday at the Courthouse of a plan to divide the county's largest voting precinct — Precinct 17 in the Swearingen Hill section north of Weirton — into two smaller precincts.

The new precincts, to be known as Precinct 17 and Precinct 20, will have an estimated registration of 500 persons each. Registration in the 17th precinct at the May primary was 1,115.

Division of the large precinct into two sections brings the total voting precincts in Hancock to 39.

Boundaries were defined by Mrs. Mary C. Stewart, county clerk, and Prosecuting Atty. Floyd R. Tarr after a study.

Registrars were named to canvass the two precincts for the November general election. They are Mrs. Frances Ralston, Republican, and Mrs. Mary E. Hill, Democrat, for Precinct 17, and Mrs. Chester Ralston, Democrat, and Mrs. Meriam L. Stoneking, Republican, for Precinct 20. They are to receive 20 cents for each new voter registered, and 12 cents for each transfer registration.

Toledo is the nation's largest shipper of coal.

Junior Fair Board's Session Set Thursday

LISBON — The Columbiana County Junior Fair Board will meet at 7:30 p. m. Thursday at the fairgrounds here to complete painting projects, plan future work and make assignments for the fair Aug. 26-30. Robert Hippely of Salem R. D. 3, president, will be in charge.

The County 4-H Council will hold its quarterly meeting at 8:30 p. m. Thursday in the Extension Service office on S. Market St. with the Rev. Frank Hare of Beaver Valley United Presbyterian Larger Parish in charge as president. The council will plan for the County Fair, 4-H rally and advisors' recognition banquet.

Chester Kiwanis Told Of Duties Of Coast Guard

Lt. Cmdr. R. E. Anderson of Pittsburgh outlined the mission of the Coast Guard and screened a film when the Chester Kiwanis Club met Tuesday night at City Hall Auditorium.

The film concerned the story of the service of the Coast Guard on the rivers of America. Cmdr. Anderson, executive officer at the Coast Guard Marine Inspection Office in Pittsburgh, pointed out "Coast Guard Day" was observed Tuesday.

He outlined the history of the service branch, and explained its mission is to uphold high standards for water traffic, to maintain navigation aids in rivers and coastal waters, and be on the alert for aiding ships in distress on rivers, inland waters and high seas. The officer also discussed the opportunities for young men who qualify for enrollment at the Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn.

Twenty attended, and a family picnic was planned for Tuesday at Chester City Park. Robert Colley is chairman. The Rev. C. Donald Vogel, president, presided.

Continuance Granted In Trial For Husband

Acting at the suggestion of Asst. Solicitor Richard J. Clark, Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today granted a continuance until Sept. 16 in a case in which an East Liverpool husband is accused of malicious destruction of property at his wife's home.

Charles Nortrup, 1076 Maple-tree St., was named in an affidavit filed by his wife, Mrs. Alma Jean Nortrup, 129 W. 3rd St., alleging that he broke a lock on a door and the door itself at her home on Tuesday. Nortrup was represented by Atty. Robert A. Kapp.

The judge granted the continuance after the assistant solicitor said the local case is related to a case that will be heard in Juvenile Court at Lisbon. The solicitor recommended a continuance pending the outcome of the case at Lisbon.

Negroes Call Jersey Riots Spontaneous

NEW YORK (AP) — Three of six top Negro leaders say the Jersey City, N.J., riots are not a planned breach of the recent "summit meeting" call for curtailment or cessation of civil rights demonstrations until after election day.

Leaders of national civil rights organizations issued the call for the moratorium last Wednesday, after the New York and Rochester riots. The Jersey City violence broke out Sunday.

The summit statement said Negroes should concentrate on voter registration and political activity until after the Nov. 3 election.

Two of the six leaders of the summit meeting—James Farmer of the Congress of Racial Equality and John Lewis of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee—later disassociated themselves from the moratorium call, although both emphasized they were against violence.

Both Farmer and Lewis, reached in Washington, said the Jersey City riots had nothing to do with the moratorium because they were not demonstrations.

Roy E. Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said Jersey City had a "spontaneous outbreak" and the NAACP chairman there is "working hard with city authorities to prevent further violence." Wilkins also was in Washington.

But A. Philip Randolph an AFL-CIO vice president who also heads the Negro American Labor Council, said "undoubtedly it (Jersey City) is the first major breach of the moratorium."

In Atlanta, a secretary to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said King did not have any comment immediately.

Whitney Young, executive director of the National Urban League, was attending the organization's convention in Louisville, Ky., and could not be reached for comment.

4 Suits Filed For Runaway Of River Fleet

Four river fleet owners filed suits totaling $102,500 in U. S. District Court at Pittsburgh Tuesday against Charles Zubik as the aftermath of damages blamed on runaway barges in the flood of last March.

Some of the barges owned by Zubik, Pittsburgh river boat operator, swept through about two Ohio River dams during the runoff and a couple of them were finally "captured" in the East Liverpool area March 6.

The suits were filed by the owners of a towboat and other river craft who claimed their vessels were sunk or damaged when struck by the Zubik barges.

The flood occurred when high water carried a huge mass of ice from the upper Allegheny River ice gorge downstream. At the time the Zubik firm estimated its own loss at $1 million.

One of the plaintiffs claimed $75,000 for loss of a towboat, Sheryl Ann, which was sunk, and another asked $20,000 for loss of 10 motorboats torn loose and sunk and for damage to a houseboat.

The third claimed $2,500 for damage to a houseboat and rigging and the fourth $5,000 for damage to the motor vessel, Pete.

The plaintiffs claimed Zubik was negligent in failing to have adequate mooring lines for his fleet of barges and not having adequate watchman service.

Board Receives State Award For Election Efforts

The Columbiana County Election Board has received from Secretary of State Ted W. Brown the certificate of "outstanding achievement" which it was presented by Ohio's chief election officer at a statewide meeting in June for its work in administering the primary election May 5.

The colorfully-printed certificate carries a wide gold border and has Brown's signature and official seal affixed. The Columbiana County board was one of several in the state designated for the award at a conference of the secretary of state June 30 at Cedar Point.

The certificate points out that "fundamental to the American elective process is an efficient administration of elections." It adds that "after evaluation of all the factors involved" the secretary of state "recognizes the Columbiana County Election Board and all its personnel for a helpful contribution to the success of the 1964 primary elections."

City Mishap Damages Sedan, Station Wagon

A sedan and a station wagon were damaged in a collision Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. at McKinnon and St. Clair Aves., police were advised.

The mishap involved a 1963 model station wagon driven by Carol Jean Smith, 18, of 829 Lincoln Ave. and a 1961 two-door sedan operated by Miss Bernadette Kay Geon, 17, of 734 Lincoln Ave., officers said.

Patrolman L. E. Richard said the collision was not reported to headquarters until 4:55 p. m. and both drivers were advised police should have been summoned at the time. The driver of the station wagon was turning right from St. Clair onto McKinnon and the sedan was headed west on McKinnon, officers were told. Miss Geon said she halted to allow the station wagon room to make the turn, but it struck her auto.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a boy 10 years old who would like you to answer a question for me if you can. Why do parents have two sets of laws, one for themselves and one for their children?

I'm thinking of one special law in our house which is awful.

When I spill something on the tablecloth, especially grape juice, I have to leave the dining room table and go eat in the kitchen on the cooking board. When one of my parents spills something they say, "Oh, for Heaven's sake!" — and go right on eating at the table and that's all there is to it.

Why can parents do something and think it's just fine but when their children do the very same thing they get punished? Will you please answer this? Thank you.—BOBBY.

Dear Bobby: There is an Army expression that goes like this: "RHIP" it means "Rank Has Its Privileges." And it's the same way in life, so you'd better face up to it.

When an adult spills something on the tablecloth it's called an accident. When a child spills something it's called carelessness. I don't see any difference myself. Furthermore, I don't think a child should be sent away from the table when he spills something — not even grape juice.

Busy Neighbor

Dear Ann: I have a neighbor who is so helpful I'm just about ready to wring her neck.

I work days and my husband works nights. I leave the house at 8:30 a.m. The minute I leave for work this neighbor comes over to make my husband a "nice hot breakfast" and clean up my kitchen.

Sometimes she waxes the linoleum and rearranges my cupboards. One day she changed everything around and I went crazy looking for the mustard. I don't want this woman in my house and have told her so. It goes in one ear and out the other. She says she enjoys being neighborly.

In the meantime, the neighbors have plenty to say and I'm beginning to wonder if it is just gossip — or if perhaps this woman is giving my husband more than breakfast.

Please tell me what to do about it.—AGGIE.

Dear Aggie: Get on the night shift, Toots.

Own Worst Enemies

Dear Ann: I loved your answer to "Also Not Ashamed." I agree with you that an epileptic who functions as well as "Also" makes a mistake when she keeps her affliction a deep dark secret. She could do immeasurable good by telling her friends she is an epileptic and acquainting them with the true nature of the disease.

Epileptics are their own worst enemies. Too many of us keep our illness at the Dark Age level and behave as if it were some despicable, loathesome thing. We then criticize others because they are ignorant and prejudiced.

If epileptics wish to be treated as normal human beings they should lead the way by being open and unashamed — and by demonstrating that epileptics are not so different from other people, after all. — SAN ANTONIO.

Dear Sam: Well said and thank you for saying it. I agree the most effective job of enlightening the public can be done by epileptics themselves.

This takes courage but even the lowly turtle knows that if he is to make progress he must stick out his neck.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Bringing Up A Family

By DR. GARRY MYERS

War Of Words Can Be Nerve Racking

Yesterday we discussed quarrelling among young children in the family. Today let us consider wordy warfare among children over seven or eight in the same family. The most common setting for such quarrelling is the evening mealtime. Mealtime education may derive from a duel of words between two children, especially when the argument is somewhat intellectual and is carried on without great heat. Indeed, a few children may learn thereby to be good debaters and get good preparation for the profession of law.

If parents would set a good example by arguing without anger, the children might choose and defend one side of the argument.

When I was a graduate student I had the privilege of dining one day at a table next to that of the late Professors Dewey and Montague. I ate slowly in order to listen at length to these two great scholars argue over a philosophical matter.

I don't remember what either one said or what they argued about. But I do remember my impression of the calmness with which they disagreed. Not once, as I recall, did either person raise his voice or evince any anger. Right then I wished, and have often wished since, that I might always emulate their good ways.

How wonderful it would be if parents could discuss their differences as objectively and unemotionally. Imagine a father and mother, at dinner with the family, arguing without heat the issues and candidates of the coming presidential election; or the father or mother so arguing with a son or daughter; or two teen-age children doing so.

UNFORTUNATELY such arguing rarely, if ever, occurs in the average family. What usually happens is that two children carry on a war of words. Contention and strife are rampant. The angry words between the children tend to stir up wrath in the parents.

Usually the argument concerns some matter of personal preference or opinion, and the contenders grow louder and louder and more and more angry. In some instances the vexed parents shout at the combatants to "pipe down."

Before such a stage of verbal violence is reached, the wise parent quietly sends the combatants away from the table, to finish the meal elsewhere, without trying to place the blame or takes sides.

As an antidote to such trying scenes, the members of the family might try relating interesting experiences of the day, especially those of a humorous nature.

IT IS WONDERFUL when jokes are told at mealtime. They evoke generous smiles and laughter. Mealtime practice of free, easy and enjoyable conversation should help reduce quarrelling.

My bulletins, "A Parent's Prayer" and "Fighting and Quarrelling Among Children," may be secured by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Prisoners Volunteer For Research Project

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Warden Ernie L. Maxwell says 44 Ohio Penitentiary inmates volunteered to take part in a one-year heart research program in the first two days after a call for volunteers went out.

The research program, sponsored by Ohio State University's medical college, calls for investigation of mechanisms controlling output and blood pressure in healthy persons who have been injected with drugs which alter the function of the heart and lungs.

Englishman Retracts

Complaints About Dog SOHAM, England (AP)—Bert Peacock, 67, made a public apology to a dog today.

Peacock had complained to police that Tina, hairdresser Ruth Harvey's 2-year-old Alsatian, bit his son. The police found another dog was the culprit.

The Soham Advertiser carried this advertisement today: "Mr. B. Peacock wishes to apologize for a false accusation against Mrs. R. Harvey's dog."

Next Major Step

Moon Close-Ups Slated From Surveyor Landing

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Jet Propulsion Laboratory scientists, equipped with 4,316 close up photographs of the moon, are thinking eagerly of the next major step in man's exploration of the lunar landscape.

It is the Surveyor, a soft-landing spacecraft with cameras that may function on the lunar surface for up to 30 days.

Two more Rangers are scheduled to be launched early next year. Plans call for them to have missions identical to picture-snapping Ranger 7.

Late next year the U.S. Space Agency will fire the first of seven Surveyors, which are three times heavier than the Rangers and have shock absorber legs.

The 806-pound Ranger 7 photographed craters as small as three feet in diameter before it crashed on the moon Friday.

The 2,300-pound Surveyor will be able to take pictures of objects the size of pinheads.

A shot in the arm for Surveyor's designers: A study of Ranger photographs indicates no major changes will be necessary in the planned model.

Surveyor's tripod legs should be able to survive a landing on terrain similar to Ranger's impact area — a crater-pocked plain in the Sea of Clouds.

Surveyor program manager W.E. Gibson says "we will use many of Ranger's technical people as they come off jobs such as testing and design, with the idea of cross-fertilization between the two projects."

"But we're already well along: We've been working on Surveyor since 1960 and we're quite proud of being able to anticipate some of Ranger's findings."

Ranger's pictures indicate the moon has a hard crust covered with a thin layer of dust.

Gibson believes Surveyor's pad-footed, 6-foot-long legs can settle down on such a surface with no damage to its scientific instruments.

Ranger was designed to crash into the moon and it did. Surveyor has a retro-rocket to break its descent and let it fall free to the surface from a height of no more than 10 or 15 feet.

Once it lands, its two television cameras should be able to swing full circle and up and down, giving earth scientists a "you are there" picture of the lunar landscape.

Surveyor also will have a claw on an extendable arm to pick up objects as far away as 10 feet and lift them up to the stereoscopic television eyes for three-dimension scrutiny.

Heart of Surveyor's soft-landing system is a 10,000-pound thrust, solid-fuel retro-rocket that will be turned on 60 miles from the moon.

Tourist interest in Indian crafts has increased in the United States.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

There's No Biz Like TV News Biz

There's no business like show business—unless it's the TV news business. Last week's scuttling of Walter Cronkite

(from his post as CBS anchor man for the upcoming Democratic convention) put him on the same level as a comic whose jokes weren't registering high enough on the laugh meter. "They said a dramatic change was needed, and if I were an executive faced with playing the Madison Avenue rating game I suppose I'd say the same thing," Walter reported.

HE WAS REFERRING to his conversation with CBS News president Fred Friendly and CBS convention director Bill Leonard, who flew to Los Angeles to interrupt Walter's vacation with his family.

"We kicked around a couple of ideas," said Walter, "and, needless to say, neither of them involved my not continuing as convention anchor man.

"Finally, I said, 'Come on, fellows, let's put the cards on the table.' That's when they told about their plan to put Roger Mudd and Bob Trout in my spot."

Apparently as a sop to Walter he was asked by Friendly and Leonard to be a kind of host anchor man to open and close each day's proceedings for CBS at the Atlantic City conclave.

"I TURNED THAT down," said Walter, "because I thought it would be an embarrassment to Roger and Bob."

Did the CBS brass have any real criticism of Walter's job at the San Francisco convention?

"Oh, no," he said. "They had nothing but slobbering praise for everything I did in San Francisco."

Asked if he had become a scapegoat for management decisions which didn't pay off at the GOP convention, Walter said he thought "scapegoat" was too hard a word, but he couldn't think of a substitute.

JUDGED on a hard news basis, Walter's coverage at San Francisco stacked up more than even with anything done at NBC or ABC. His uncorking of Gov. Bill Scranton's admission he did not write the poison pen letter to Sen. Barry Goldwater was the only really solid news beat of the entire convention.

What Walter couldn't beat were the figures resulting from a few hundred phone calls made to viewers by the overnight rating services. That, plus the Huntley-Brinkley habit which NBC has inculcated in a major number of viewers, causes panic throughout the upper floors at CBS.

Trout and Mudd (there's a great pair of names for a vaudeville marquee) now can join Huntley and Brinkley, who at San Francisco were joined by ABC's new team of Smith and Morgan, and viewers across the land will get "an echo instead of a choice," to reverse the title of that partisan book recently published about Sen. Goldwater.

THE TV NETWORKS like to think their news departments are separate and autonomous organizations dedicated to a mature covering of the world's news. But the Walter Cronkite affair proves the news departments are just as immersed in show business as the entertainment departments.

What happens now if Trout and Mudd aren't able to prove more entertaining than their observations of the Democratic convention than Huntley and Brinkley?

Maybe the CBS mentors will decide to dress up Buddy Ebsen in the Jed Clampett rags he wears on "Beverly Hillsbillies" and put him in the booth with Trout and Mudd to describe the pageant side of the convention.

If Buddy and his gang can pull the top TV rating for CBS shows, why can't he do the same by giving the news an aw-shucks twist?

Jersey Barbers Get Discrimination Notice

TRENTON, N.J. (AP)—New Jersey's barbers were told today that refusal to cut the hair of Negroes could result in license suspensions.

In a letter to all barbers, the New Jersey Board of Barber Examiners said: "A statement by any licensed barber given as a reason for denying service to non-white persons that he did not know how to cut or shave their hair would be untrue."

Woman Charged In Ohio Murder

WOOSTER, Ohio (AP)—A 21-year-old woman was held on a first-degree murder charge here today in connection with the fatal stabbing of a divorced mother of three.

Police said Miss Janet Sue Plant surrendered shortly before midnight Monday night, ending a statewide search for her.

She was named Monday in a first-degree murder warrant issued by Wayne County prosecutor James K. Leedy. The charge grew out of an argument Sunday night in a tavern parking lot near Wooster during which Mrs. Nettie Stutler, 25, of Wooster, was slain with a five-inch hunting knife, the prosecutor said.

Leedy said Mrs. Stutler was stabbed twice in the abdomen after she and Miss Plant got into a fight outside the Pines Tavern on Ohio 30 two miles east of Wooster.

The prosecutor said witnesses saw Miss Plant flee from the scene of the slaying with a woman in a car bearing West Virginia license plates. The murder weapon was found on the seat of another car in which the victim was taken to a hospital.

Candidate Can't Find Name Listed On Ballot

NORTON, Kan. (AP)—Guy Ankerman, on the Democratic ticket for Norton County commissioner, got a jolt when he entered a polling place to vote Tuesday.

His name wasn't on the ballot.

Election officials found that Ankerman's name was omitted on ballots used in the three city wards, but was on those used in the townships.

Since he was unopposed for the Democratic nomination, the officials agreed that nothing had to be done about the omission.

'No Jokum,' Say Danes Following Skeleton Scare

COPENHAGEN (AP)—Police are looking for boys who stole a skeleton and scared residents of a suburban Copenhagen apartment house.

The skeleton, nicknamed Jokum, vanished from a neighborhood school's natural history department Monday night.

Tuesday an 8-year-old girl in an apartment house answered a knock on the door of her apartment. On the landing outside was Jokum.

The girl ran screaming back into the apartment.

As her father jumped to the door, the skeleton fell in his arms. The staircase echoed to female screams and male curses as neighbors hurried out.

One man said he saw at least three boys running out of the house.

Many of summer's fresh fruit pies benefit from a top crust of brown sugar, flour and nuts crumbled together.

News From The World Of Records

Brothers 'Smothered' With Work

By MARY CAMPBELL
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Tom Smothers was drinking coffee in a restaurant, planning his nervous breakdown.

"I think I'll have the breakdown on national TV or at a concert. Of course they can always cut you out on TV, with video tape."

Tom grabbed his throat, gagged and fell back in his chair, like a man dying from self-strangulation. Not one waitress looked around. Tom sat up.

"I guess I'll wait, my brother and myself, for a larger, nationwide audience."

It was the kind of put-on that Tom, older half of the joking, folk-singing Smothers Brothers is known for.

He's the one who does most of the duet's rambling, mixed-up openings, introducing an Indian song by explaining that the brave is going from poverty to manhood; interrupts "I Talk to the Trees" with a smirk and a sly "Hello, tree;" and sulkily insists that there are, too, dangerous pumas in the crevices in the West.

BUT THE breakdown act is based on more than humorous fantasy.

The Smothers Brothers, and especially Tom, are very, very tired. Asked whether, after five and a half years, people are tired of hearing their spoofing and singing routines, they say they don't think so. But they are tired of doing them.

"About a year ago I really felt tired," Tom says. "Last year it took more effort to perform than it ever had. It lost some of the fun."

"I was always an extrovert. After each show I'd be out meeting people and Dickie was always sneaking off and reading a book. Now it's just the opposite."

This season the Smothers Brothers did 120 concerts. Next year they say they'll do half that many. "The drag is not the physical work," Tom says. "But you get this strain of traveling."

"And it's hard to find songs we can base comedy material on. The first two years we got the outline and basic idea; everything creative was done in those two years. Now we make so much money we're afraid to take chances any more. We have to keep doing the same thing and it drives me out of my mind."

solid records (five albums on Mercury). We've appeared on TV and in good clubs. Now we want to grow more — we want to do a movie.

"So many acts have reached our point and then they stop and they don't do anything, just become regulars in Las Vegas."

Dick says, "We are doing a 'Burke's Law' on TV — dramatic parts. I die in the first 30 seconds, I think. That is a step in the right direction."

He says they turned down a part in an Elvis Presley movie because they would have been playing Presley's two-man Cuban band and doing their usual Smothers Brothers routines.

"We felt it wasn't a step in the right direction."

Tom says, "We'd also like to put out straight singing albums, two a year, because we like to sing so much. And we'd like to play a night club someplace once a year. If you stop working before an audience, you lose your timing, I think."

"But we feel if we fail in movies we should just as well call it. We don't want to be just hanging around doing the same thing."

gle, and Dick thinks he'd go back to college and become a teacher.

The Smothers Brothers really are brothers and their name really is Smothers. They have two sisters, one who works in a doctor's office and one age 9. "She's a coal miner," Tom explains. "There are lots of interesting things in our family."

Tom, 27, has a wife and Dick, 25, has a wife, daughter, 3, and an infant son.

They got their start — and their direction — in show business when they auditioned for the Purple Onion and were hired almost immediately to fill in for an act which couldn't show up.

"They hired us for folk singers," Tom says. "and we only knew four songs. I introduced songs and had to stretch. I could stretch 15 minutes of songs into three hours by making absurd lies about the material before we'd sing it."

"We just happened to make our first job and decided to quit college," Dick says. "We were considered really off-beat, really different, no commercial value at all."

"We're not that off-beat any more. Other people are doing more unusual things."

"We're products of a by-gone era."

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. Is there any way to remove scorch stains from garments?

A. If not burned in too deeply, and if the material is white cotton or linen, moisten it and expose to direct sunlight—which may bleach out the stain if it's light enough. Unfortunately, scorch stains can seldom be handled successfully on colored fabrics.

Q. How can I prevent a cloth shower curtain from mildewing?

A. By soaking it in a strong solution of salt water before hanging it up. The salt keeps the mildew from growing.

Study Urged On Ohio's Bid For Industry

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio business and industrial leaders have called for a study aimed at establishing a program of state-assisted industrial financing to improve Ohio's capacity for competing for new industry.

The leaders—from 70 communities — want an advisory council created to study industrial financing programs of neighboring states and make recommendations to Gov. James A. Rhodes for submission to the next session of the legislature.

The action was taken Tuesday by 170 representatives of community improvement corporations, chambers of commerce and public utilities attending a financing workshop sponsored by the State Development Department.

They unanimously adopted a resolution offered by State Rep. Edmund G. James, R-Noble, calling for creation of the 16-member advisory council composed of two members from each of Ohio's eight economic regions.

The recommendations the committee is to make to the governor are to be changes in the law or the state constitution to permit Ohio to establish some kind of state financing program.

A recent attempt to let Ohio lend aid to businesses contemplating expanding in Ohio was declared unconstitutional by the Ohio Supreme Court.

The last legislature passed a law creating an Ohio Development Financing Commission to make loans to companies to help them establish plants in Ohio.

But the Supreme Court, in knocking out the law, said it violated the state constitution's ban against loaning the state's credit to aid private interests. The court decision was a blow to Rhodes' plans of creating 200,000 new jobs in the state, one of the major promises in his 1962 gubernatorial campaign.

The first medical prescriptions we know about were those of Dr. Lulu, of Ur, who practiced about 2700 B. C.

Rhodes Sees No Tax Hikes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state budget which lawmakers will examine—and possibly even tear apart—next year is being developed from the ground up right now.

It will be for the period from July 1, 1965, to June 30, 1967.

Gov. James A. Rhodes says it will be balanced. And, with an eye on economic growth predictions for Ohio, he adds that he "can see no requirement for new or additional taxes."

Finance Director Richard L. Krabach says the general revenue fund budget, which provides for most of the state's day-to-day governmental activities and involves nearly half its income, will be bigger than the $1.2 billion plus of the present two-year period.

How much larger, Krabach says it's too early to tell. His finance department's analysts and computers are pondering a collection of past, present and projected spending data.

But Krabach agrees with his boss that it looks as if Ohio's population and economy will keep growing and providing more money for state government without requiring a change in the tax structure.

Where are state costs increasing?

Not as many places as one might think, the lean and lanky finance director contends. If you keep state employees reasonably happy, he theorizes, you cut down turnover costs and increase efficiency.

And, Krabach says, faster, better, less expensive ways to do many of the chores of state government are developed every year.

But education costs, kindergarten through college, must be reckoned with because more people are getting more schooling. And some state employees — highway patrolmen, mental hygiene and welfare specialists — are getting pay raises.

What of the $83-million deficit Rhodes always has claimed he inherited upon taking office 19 months ago (and which Democrats have disputed)?

The Rhodes administration says it will be wiped out through its economy efforts, by the time the new two-year budget goes into effect July 1, 1965.

A Strange Arithmetic

The Magic Of Remember

NEW YORK (AP) — Memory has a strange arithmetic.

It multiplies joy but rarely adds to grief; it divides the future and past without subtracting anything from the present.

Memory gives a thousand lives to a moment of ecstasy or pleasure. You can live it over and over again, as often as you want.

But memory usually doesn't do that with sorrow. It helps soften the edges of sadness or disappointment. It may even enable us to chuckle later at an event or feeling that threatened to burst our heart at the time of happening.

You have quite a treasury of recollections if you can look back and remember when:

It took a wife with long hair an hour to get ready to go to a party. Now it takes a wife with short hair an hour and a half.

Opportunity was the key word in America — not security. All most Americans wanted was a chance to show what they could do.

The envy of the neighborhood was the kid whose soldier uncle brought home a spiked German helmet from World War I.

A dude was a fellow who wore high-button shoes.

It was a mark of affluence to own a double-breasted suit.

The nickel glass of beer had become a casualty of inflation, but in every city in the land you could get a steaming cup of coffee for five cents.

Reformers argued that business offices were not fit places for women, and that girls who worked in them were found to have their morals ruined.

In saloons, a man had to be careful how he stood with his foot on the bar, because if it slipped he might get it stuck in a cuspidor.

You didn't amount to much at the local barber shop unless they kept your own shaving mug there, bearing your name in gold letters.

There were still politicians running for office who could boast that they had been born in a log cabin. As a matter of fact, no man born in a hospital has yet been elected U.S. president.

You could enjoy the music of "Old Black Joe" without feeling you were a racial bigot.

You could get a good white shirt on sale for a dollar. A blue shirt cost less.

When dad had something to say, everybody else in the family shut up and listened.

Those were the days: Remember?

Junior Editors Quiz on TREES

QUESTION: Where is the largest tree in the United States found?

ANSWER: You can think of "largest" in two ways--you might mean bulkiest or heaviest, or tallest. But both such superlative trees will be found to be in the genus of conifers called "Sequoia"; the bulkiest being "Sequoia gigantea", or big tree, and the tallest "Sequoia sempervirens", or redwood. (The big tree is sometimes put in the genus "Sequoiadendron".)

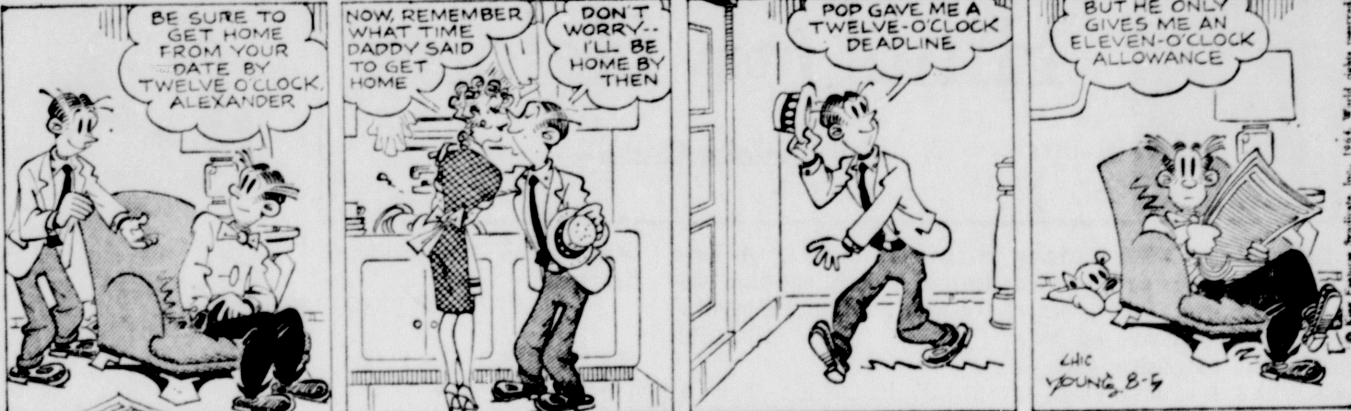

The big tree is regarded as the largest tree in the world and will be found growing in Sequoia National Park in California's Sierra Nevada mountains, a park specially established to protect these forest kings. Biggest of sequoias is the General Sherman tree, which we illustrate. It is 101.5 feet around the base, 272.4 feet tall and its weight has been estimated at 6,107 tons. The leaves of the big tree, close to the stem, resemble those of the juniper.

In contrast, the redwood, closely related to the big tree, has leaves resembling the hemlock, and grows in the foggy California mountain sides which face the Pacific Ocean. This is the world's tallest tree, soaring as high as 359.3 feet. Its wood makes highly prized lumber.

FOR YOU TO DO: Color the Sequoia. Don't make the colors too bright or they will seem too close. There is always a bit of blue in the air and this tends to tone the other colors down.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruise —

Dear Heloise: When traveling with children, the prepared packets of wet, soapy, paper towels are wonderful, but for a much less expensive idea, if you have lots of little hands to wash before stopping for meals (and you know how damp wash cloths mildew if you try to carry them on a long trip!) — take along a jar of cotton balls moistened with rubbing alcohol. Besides being sanitary, it's cooling.

I got this idea from my doctor's little black bag. . . . TRAVELING MOMMY.

DEAR FOLKS: Did you also know that you could put-folded facial tissues in a fruit jar and pour a little alcohol over them, cap the lid and shake.

If you don't have a facial tissue, strips of toilet tissue, or paper towels will suffice.

These are also great when carried in the trunk of a car so if you have to change a tire you have something to wash your hands with.

Be SURE to cap the jar tightly so the alcohol won't evaporate; in fact, we have learned to mix one-third water with two-thirds alcohol! HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: It used to be that when my children asked for chocolate milk I would say to myself "Oh boy, here I go again — mix the powder with hot water or get lumps."

Well, I don't mind mixing chocolate now. I mix the contents of the entire can with water at one time and then store it in a jar in the refrigerator. Now it takes no time at all to make chocolate milk. And best of all no lumps or warm milk. . . . MOTHER.

DEAR HELOISE: Don't throw away leftover pie crust dough!

Roll the dough out and cut it into squares about four inches square. Spread them with a favorite jam. Fold them over (jam side in) and bake them while you are baking your pies.

These tarts are a yummy and all-time favorite lunch box treat.

BRENDA BRIGGS.

DEAR HELOISE: I find it time saving and very helpful to polish white canvas shoes as soon as I take them from the washer and while they are still soaking wet, rather than let them dry and then polish them.

Not only does it prevent streaks but when they are dry, they are ready to wear with no second handling.

PATTY KNOD.

DEAR HELOISE: Down on my knees this morning picking up a jillion BB's, that had spilled from a jar, I had a flash of inspiration.

A magnet! It worked so well (and was so much fun—shh) that I had to share the idea.

With five children, if it's not BB's, it's erector set nuts and bolts, needles, etc., and I'm always being accused of sucking them up in the vacuum cleaner.

So from now on, to save knees, eyes, tread rug and temper, the magnet comes along in my pocket when I'm on my vacuum cleaning detail.

It's quick, more accurate than fumbling fingers and squinty eyes, cause you just have to come close and it's fun, too (but that's a secret).

So, try it mom! It works! DOTTY BURDETT.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER!

DEAR HELOISE: I have never tried this myself and wouldn't want to be responsible if someone else did and it didn't work for them . . . but the hint is supposed to be good. . . . DEAD.

I did! It didn't! It wasn't! And glad we tried it! HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When sprinkling my laundry I put the belts to all of my dresses in plastic bags and then roll them up.

This prevents rust marks from the belt buckles appearing on my dresses.

IRENE GREENHALGH.

Odd Facts

The Roman Catholic religion has the largest membership in the world, with 558,221,000. Following this in order are Moslems with 437,272,000, Hindus with 340,884,000, Confucians with 334,549,000, and Protestants with 219,636,000 members.

States allotted nearly $11 billion to local governments within their jurisdictions last year.

2 Townships Ask 4 Levies

Two townships filed resolutions Tuesday afternoon with the County Election Board asking a vote on a total of four levies at the general election Nov. 3.

Washington Township, which includes Salineville, filled a new proposition while Madison Township entered resolutions on three proposals — one new and the other two renewals.

Washington Township trustees asked a ballot place for a new 2-mill levy for "reconstruction, resurfacing and repair" of township roads. If approved, it would be in effect two years.

Madison Township's new proposition seeks a 1-mill levy to provide funds for police protection. It would be in effect five years, if approved.

The township also asked renewal of two eight-tenths-mill levies — one for providing funds for fire protection and the other to set aside funds for reconstruction, resurfacing and repair of roads.

The fire protection and road maintenance levies also would be in effect five years.

64 Enter County Jail During July

LISBON — The Columbiana County Jail received 64 prisoners in July in addition to the 33 confined as of July 1. Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan reports in his monthly summary.

Sixty-two prisoners were released during July; two were taken to state institutions and four mental patients were taken to state hospitals.

The jail served 2,030 meals at a cost of $1,012.98, making the average daily cost $1.03 per prisoner, the sheriff said.

There were 181 visitors at the jail last month. The sheriff said 213 papers were served and 5,969 radio transmissions were handled along with 1,497 telephone calls. Fees totaling $673.81 were collected and 31 sets of fox feet and ears were turned in for the $3 bounty.

2 City Youths Leave For Service In Army

Columbiana County Draft Board 16 Tuesday at Lisbon sent two East Liverpool volunteers to Cleveland for induction in the armed forces, completing the "draft" for August. The inductees are Jerry R. Buzzard, 520 Mulberry St., and Johnie Adkins, 933 St. George St.

Board 16 will send two groups for pre-induction physicals this month — six men today and 12 18-year-olds on Monday, Aug. 10.
